SUBURBAN

When the Totowa Council re-organizes January 1, it will be the first all-Democratic council in the borough's history.

* * * *

Remember it was first reported here that former Demestic Court Judge Milton Schamach would become West Paterson magistrate.

* * * *

Joe Band's suit against Fair Lawn for the right to carry on his refuse disposal business will soon bear fruit — and not for the borough either.

* * * *

A testimonial being planned for retiring Councilman Gordon Kent of Little Falls. Kent will be sorely missed.

* * * *

Wayne Health Officer Oscar Aquino acquires tenure with his re-appointment this year. He has done an outstanding job and is recognized as one of the best men in the state for the particular field.

* * * *

It was also first mentioned here how close Pancake Hollow was to realization. Recent pronouncements in the daily press bear testimony to the fact.

* * * *

Incidentally, Totowa Borough Clerk Joseph Constantino will also acquire tenure with his re-appointment. Joe has been almost indispensable in his conduct of the borough clerk's duties.

One of Wayne's bright young men is expected to be named to a state patronage plum some time between January 1 and 15. Watch for his surprised reaction when the news leaks.

* * * *

By the way, the old adage about the man living in a glass house ought to be preying on another of Wayne's politicoes. How many weekly meetings can there be?

P.S. He ought to know, he is close to the edge.

* * * *

The tug-of-war with respect to the magistrate's post in Fair Lawn will be resolved with the return of Joseph G. Sproviere. Despite the reports that "money is being spent like water" by the father of one of the candidates for the post, nothing will come of it.

X
Happy New Year
10/12-25

1958 and all is well. As in previous hundreds of years the world's millions have echoed and re-echoed the prayers for better things to come. Each according to his own conscience and desire will look toward tomorrow's new horizon with renewed hope and added courage.

1962 The year 1957 was a year of many innovations, particularly in the field of scientific achievement. Flying missiles, satellites and the ~~inter~~ steps toward the conquest of outer space have created new tensions and unrest.

The international race to lay claim to the moon has stirred half the nations of the world to intensify their efforts in providing safeguards to maintain security and peace.

It is fitting that each nation take action to protect itself. But the prime concern should be the well being of the people and not the materialistic or physical properties which appear to be uppermost in the mind and heart of each of the world's individual national leaders.

Here at this stage, it would seem that too much time has elapsed. For nations as well as individuals often delay, until almost too late, before they heed the danger signs.

But the dawn of a new year, for some undefinable reason, brings the changeless gift of God to all men's hearts — Hope.

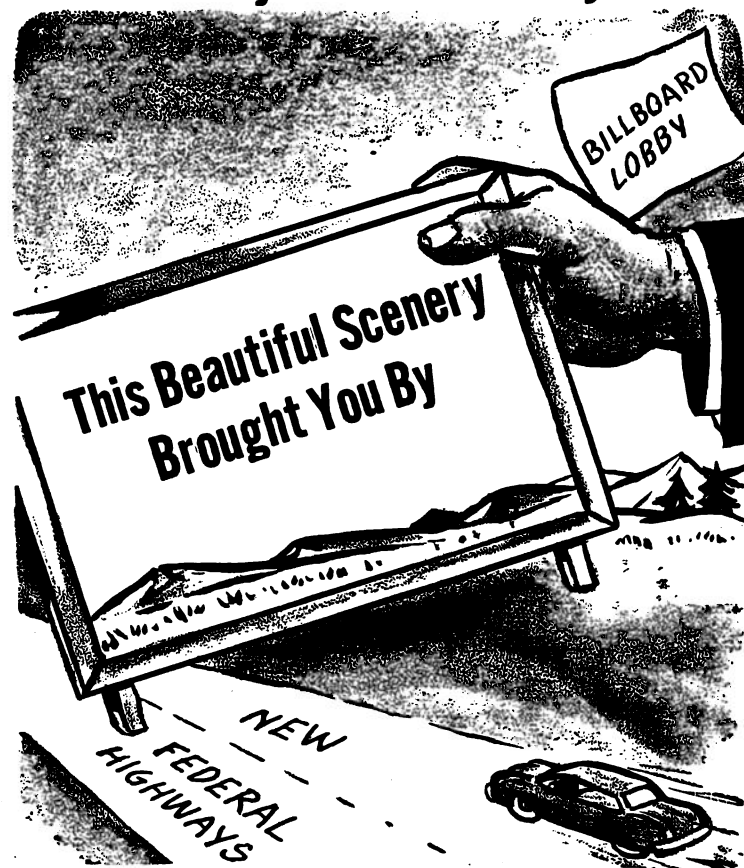

This priceless gift must be cherished and preserved else life would be hollow and without meaning.

Hope will bring fulfillment. But each of us, as a child of God, should look ahead not only for what we may receive or gain, but also for that which each of us may contribute that others may be blessed as well.

Basically, each of us is more dependent on our neighbor than we realize. For as it has so often been said man does not live by bread alone nor does anyone live in a vacuum all unto himself.

To each reader the Chronicle and its staff extends sincere wishes for a brighter and more fruitful New Year. We hope that peace will prevail throughout the world and that each of us realizes, according to the individual desires, the success and happiness yearned for.

If They Have Their Way

The Editor Speaks

VINCENT S. PARRILLO

Well, 1957 has gone and 1958 is here in all its glory and promise of bigger and better things to come. I hope so!

In the last several years I have managed not to break any New Year resolutions. It was easy for me because I didn't make any at all. I'm not a dope. I know resolutions last for a couple of days and then — pffft, out the window.

I don't know about you but last New Year's eve was a real BIG one for me. Actually, it was the first time in many years that we have attended a New Year's Eve party anywhere but home. The spouse and I generally sit up with the "five" and see the New Year in and then off to the sack. But last year, number one son was off to some social event with his best girl and number two son also off in another direction, making the family party a little weak. The feeling is strained because along about midnight both Mom and I are wondering if the boys are all right. All sorts of ideas keep cropping up. If you are a parent I guess I don't have to tell you what some of them are . . . Anyway, the neighbors saw our lights on a little longer than usual and called on the phone to ask us over.

It's hard to say no, especially when they say, "bring the kiddies." So there we were until four a.m., eating and drinking and making merry with the kids, ours and theirs, stretched all over the floor, fast asleep. It got so that we forgot all about the boys being out and when we trekked in about 5 a.m. there they were sprawled over the living room furniture, deep in slumber.

Our entrance was a little noisy because it is a little awkward for two to be carrying three. Well, not actually carrying three. My wife and I each carried one with one other between us, bobbing and weaving all over.

The boys awoke and wanted to know, "where were you?" "How come, you were out?" "Why so late?" "Weren't you worried about us?" "Did you have fun?"

Oh, what a night. We finally quieted them down, promising to tell them all about it in the morning. But when I awoke I had to come to work. Nothing has been said since. Maybe this year will be a repeat. Oh, my! — HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Let's Talk

Politics

—by OJAY

The opinions expressed in this column are exclusively those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the policy and opinion of The Chronicle.

Each year during this season, it has been the practice to list New Year resolutions and the aspirations of various political leaders. However, with so much activity and so many changes being made in the complexion of local and state government, we have decided to forego the traditional customs.

During the past months we have tried to present an objective outlook on the political scene. No one has been deliberately disparaged or maligned. It has been simply a matter of reporting the function of government as we have seen it. Criticisms are not intended to destroy but rather to assist in providing the best possible government to the greatest number of people.

In keeping with the spirit of the season we wish to extend to all our readers sincere best wishes for a happier, healthier and more abundant New Year.

THE SHOWCASE

By D. G.

Warner Brothers contractee Efrem Zimbalist, Jr., now starring in "To Much, Too Soon," has completed the first two acts of an original play which he hopes to produce on Broadway next season. Zimbalist produced three shows on Broadway before coming to Warners as an actor.

* * *

Gypsy Rose Lee, star of "The Charmer" on "The United States Steel Hour," Wednesday, January 1, is currently working on a new book to add to her two novels, best selling autobiography and Broadway play. Her latest is a cook book composed of her favorite recipes. Gypsy's friends report she's an expert cook, her specialty being a Spanish soup called "asgacho."

* * *

The year 1935 holds a double significance for Jill Corey. Not only is it the year of her birth, it also marked the first radio broadcast of "Your Hit Parade," the famed musical show which has brought Jill nation-wide TV recognition and skyrocketed her career. "Your Hit Parade" premiered April 20 and Jill was born a few months later — September 30.

SOUTHPAWS CAST MAGIC SPELL IN ABC TOURNEY

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — There was a time when the lefthanded bowler was tagged as an ugly duckling of the tenpin sport. He was a miscast individual, unpredictable, and erratic.

Seemed like he was in constant dilemmas, like drawing impossible splits, but times have changed.

Today's southpaws, though comparatively few in number, are losing their freakish identity. They are commanding the most respect in the annual American Bowling Congress tournament where for the past three years, lefthanders have walked off with three singles championships. Proof enough that portsiders belong in fast company.

GERZINE SNAPS REIGN

Until the 1955 tournament, only one southpaw was able to distinguish himself in the individual event. He was Marshall Levey, of Indianapolis, Indiana, who snared the crown in 1907.

A kegler from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Home of the Braves", Eddie Gerzine snapped the long reign of righties three years ago, in the Fort Wayne tournament, with his winning 738 score.

George Wade, of Steubenville, Ohio, came along in 1956 at Rochester, New York, with a 744, and bespectacle Bob Allen of Yonkers, New York, cast his southpaw magic last spring at Fort Worth, Texas, with a tuneful 729.

Two other lefties figured in the ABC championships of bygone days. Buffalo's Clarence Long in 1925 southpawed his way to a pair of titles. A member of the first place Weisser Blue Ribbons, he also copped all-events honors.

The famed Tea Shops of Milwaukee, holders of the highest team game in tournament history (1186) owed a major portion of its success in 1937 to lefthander George Marshall.

Wade has easily established himself as the number one lefthander in recent ABC competition. He finished third in all-events in (1946) in 1956 and fourth in all-events (1945) in 1948. The past two tournaments Wade boasts a 212:12 placing him second to Bill Lillard in the two year average column.

He holds a 12 year average of 192. Whether you are left or right-handed, now is the time to enter the 1958 ABC Tournament, opening on March 29th in Syracuse, New York, and running for 72 days through June 8th.

Mail your entry now as soon as possible to ABC Tournament Headquarters, Onondaga County War Memorial Building, Syracuse, New York. Final deadline to enter is February 11, 1958.

A MAN O FACTION

Frank Esposito, the good-looking and successful owner of the Paramus Bowl, is the tops in his field as he has brought in the top artists to the Lanes since his grand opening in 1955.

Since that time he has had one spectacular a month, bringing to Paramus the top keglers in the country as well as other stars, from the sports and entertainment field.

Approximately ten TV programs have been filmed at the lanes including a Dave Garoway show. The most outstanding of the film series was the 26-week match games that pit such western star bowlers as Lee Jougard, Dick Weber, Tony Lindeman, Johnny King, Carmine Salvino, and the East's Joe Brown, against each other.

STARS ON EBONITE STAFF

The Ebonite Company boasts many stars on their roster. Topping the list is the all-time leader in sanctioned 300 games, George Billick, of Old Forge, Pennsylvania.

Other well known keglers sporting the Ebonite banner include defending New Jersey State Match game champion Vince Lucci of Trenton; Jim Bernatos, of Post Chester, N. Y.; and Greg Griffo, of Syracuse, N. Y., the gent who copped the Petersen classic last year.

On the distaff side we find Penny Lucas, Jean O'Prey, and Ann Noga, a trio of expert pinspillers who perform in the top women's leagues in the East.

These bowlers and many others were signed by Larry Keyser, Ebonite's local demon representative, in the Eastern sector.

Any bowling establishment wishing to use any of his stars in an exhibition should contact Keyser, and he will arrange an appearance.

HAPPY NEW YEAR — Effervescent Loretta Young is in a festive mood as time runs out and 1957 slips away to become a memory. The hostess and frequent star of NBC-TV's Sunday "Loretta Young Show" is all set for a big 1958 season of half-hour dramas with prominent guest stars from the stage and screen.

"I suppose after you get out of the service you'll be waiting for me to die so you can spit on my grave," barked the old sergeant. "Oh, no," replied the draftee. "After I get out of this uniform I won't want to stand in line again!"

A salesman was trying to interest a country store owner in a hearing aid. "I get along with something a lot cheaper than that gadget," said the countryman. "Wait here and I'll show you."

He vanished for a moment and returned with a tiny wire, with no apparent connections, running from his coat pocket to his ear.

"This," he announced proudly, "only cost me a few cents."

"But how can that wire help you hear?" asked the puzzled salesman. "You'd be surprised," said the store owner. "When people see this, they talk louder."

"For a long time," a housewife confided to her seamstress, "I couldn't imagine where my husband spent his evenings. Then one night I happened to get home early, and there he was!"

"Isn't that a lot of money just to make puzzles?"

THE SPORTSCENE

AS SEEN BY RON PHILLIPS

MARTINEZ IN DO OR DIE AFFAIR — '58 IS HERE!

The big moment is here! The old year 1957 is going, and ready to make his appearance is Mister 1958, as the local sportscene is set for another banner season.

The arrival of the New Year will offer many interesting questions as to how and what, as the old year bows out.

To sports fans, however, matters political, scientific, or military, are not their chief concern. They wonder how the Yankees will do in the coming season; will the Knickerbockers be in the NBA playoffs; and will boxing survive in town here.

Although the crystal ball is hardly clear, this writer sees some of the situations taking effect as interesting results are ready to take place as 1958 gets all ready to adopt itself to the local scene.

The one big problem is Vince Martinez, the town's leading contender for welterweight honors who still is trying for a shot at the vacant title, and who may finally get his chance when he tangles with Gil Turner in Philadelphia, on January 15th.

This could be his golden opportunity after missing out in Boston.

The June night in Fenway Park when he fought Tony De Marco meant so much to Vince and now once again the situation arises to see if the Paterson fistic star has the material to go all the way up the ladder of success.

Will he be able to do it this time? That question and many others can only be answered by Mr. Martinez himself. If he takes the attitude to go all out and make mincemeat of the opposition in such a manner, with such a determined bid, then he will prove to the Paterson fight fans that he has everything to carry the welterweight championship belt to his home town.

Aggressiveness and his natural ring talent could put Vince at the top, but the ring veteran has to come up with two answers.

(1) Will he take the pretty title? or (2) Will he take the pretty face of his? These are the two big answers: fight and win, or back away and lose!

The January 15th elimination bout with Turner in Philly will tell the story, as a win by Vince will put him on top.

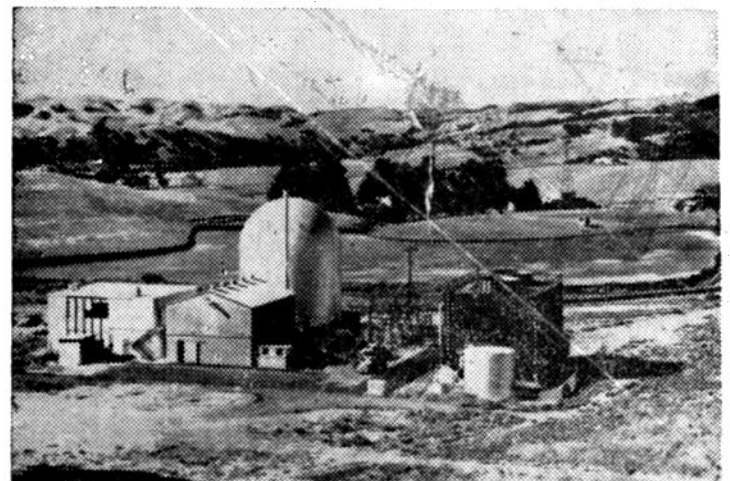

While a setback will put Martinez on the outside with his ever loving manager, Sweet Willum Daly of Englewood.

Let's hope for all concerned that Paterson will see him as the next welterweight champion of the world.

The bout will be promoted by Herman Taylor, veteran Philly matchmaker, and it will be the first fight in Philly since May, 1955.

The fight will be televised nationally on WABC-TV Channel 7 with Philly and vicinity blacked out. It will be a regular Wednesday night fite telecast, which is sponsored by Mennen Products.

It will also determine if Martinez will climb into the semi-final bracket with Isaac Logart, who has already scored over Gaspar Ortega in the first series elimination.

ANOTHER NUCLEAR "FIRST" — Pleasanton, Calif. — The Pacific Gas and Electric Company's Nuclear Power Plant built by General Electric was dedicated today. It's the world's first all-privately financed nuclear power plant. This latest photo shows the plant in a pastoral setting at Pleasanton, Calif.
