HISTORY OF THE COMMISSION—WHAT HAS BEEN DONE.

The Outlook for the Future.

With the approach of the decade when the people of Essex County will have to vote upon the question of whether or not to create a park commission, it is fitting that we should look back upon the work of the Essex County Park Commission and see what has been accomplished. The people of Essex County are entitled to know what the park commission has done for them, and what it is doing for them now. The park commission has done much for Essex County, and it is doing more every day. It has created many beautiful parks and parkways, and it is creating more every day. It has improved the health and happiness of the people of Essex County, and it is improving them every day. It has made Essex County a more beautiful and desirable place to live in, and it is making it more so every day. It has done much for Essex County, and it is doing more every day.
