WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower, at a White House ceremony, presented Mrs. Iven C. Kincheloe, Jr. with a copy of his letter to the President of 1972, requesting whoever is President at that time to appoint her son, Iven C. Kincheloe III, now 19½ months old, to the Air Force Academy when he reaches the right age. Mrs. Kincheloe is the widow of Iven C. Kincheloe, Jr. who died last July from injuries received in testing the world's fastest military plane.

BROTHERS ARE CARDINALS — Vatican City — The College of Cardinals now includes two brothers. It's the first time in 43 years that it has. The new Cardinal is Amleto Giovanni Cicognani (at right in a 1957 file photo), who, as an Archbishop, has been serving as Apostolic Delegate to the U.S. He's one of 23 new Cardinals named by Pope John XXIII here. His brother, Gaetano Cardinal Cicognani (at left in a photo placed in New York files in Oct. 1958) has been a Cardinal since 1953.

In Commemorating the birth of the Saviour, let us sing the age-old and familiar

Christmas Carols

JOY TO THE WORLD

Joy to the world! the Lord is come:
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven, and heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the world! the Saviour reigns:
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills
and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

No more let sin and sorrow grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make His blessings flow
Far as the curse is found,
Far as the curse is found,
Far as, far as the curse is found.

THE FIRST NOEL

The first Noel the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep
On a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw a Star
Shining in the East, beyond them far,
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel.

O COME, ALL YE FAITHFUL

O come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold Him,
Born the King of angels.

CHORUS:

O come, let us adore Him,
O come let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
Christ the Lord.

God of God, Light of Light,
Lo! He abhors not the Virgin's womb;
Very God, Begotten, not created.

Chorus

Sing, choirs of angels,
Sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heav'n above;
Glory to God in the Highest.

Chorus

O LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM

O little town of Bethlehem,
How still we se thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark street shineth
The everlasting light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

For Christ is born of Mary,
And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wond'ring love.
O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God our King,
And peace to men on earth.

SILENT NIGHT

Silent night, Holy night!
All is calm, all is bright
'Round yon Virgin Mother and Child,
Holy infant so tender and mild;
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, Holy night!
Shepherds quake at the sight!
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heav'nly hosts sing Alleluia;
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born!

Silent night, Holy night!
Son of God, love's pure light,
Radiant beams from Thy holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming
grace,
Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth,
Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth.

AWAY IN A MANGER

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down His sweet head;
The stars in the sky, looking down
where He lay,
The little Lord Jesus, asleep on the hay.

The cattle are lowing, the poor Baby
wakes,
But little Lord Jesus, no crying he makes;
I love Thee, Lord Jesus! look down
from the sky,
And stay by my cradle till morning is nigh.

Be near me, Lord Jesus, I ask Thee to stay
Close by me for ever and love me,
I pray;
Bless all the dear children in Thy tender care,
And take us to heaven, to live with Thee, there.

BUM DEAL — New York — Although this looks like nothing more than a friendly meeting of two derelicts, one of the "bums" is actually an actor essaying a realistic role. The actor is Bud McCrosson (Left), who appears in the "Naked City" television series over ABC. The other man is a real-live character living on New York's East Side. Portraying a moocher, McCrosson's performance was so realistic that he was promptly ejected when he strolled into a local bar.

The Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime

A WEBSTER CLASSIC

HONORED FOR SERVICE TO MANKIND — New York — Frank Pace, Jr., (Left) President of the National Institute of Social Sciences, presents Gold Medals to former President Herbert Hoover (Center) and Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson (Right) at the Institute's Dinner. The Medals are being presented for distinguished service to humanity. This is the first time in the organization's history that it has awarded a second Gold Medal to the same man — Mr. Hoover — who received one in 1918 for his services to famine-stricken victims of World War I.

MAY GOOD WILL PREVAIL

There is no other time of year quite like the Holy season of Christmas. No other holiday can match the magnetic heart tug homeward when the yuletide aura fills the air. With home as the magnet, nostalgic memories crowd every other thought out of the most harried mind.

Old friendships and ties are brought to fore. Memories of a completely different aspect with gaiety and exhilaration quickening the pulse. Heavenly music fills the air. Ageless carols are revived and suddenly they become as new as tomorrow with added vibrancy. The tinsel and wreaths bring a sparkle unmatched by any lustre before or beyond Christmas.

But what causes all these changeless things to take on a completely unrelated aspect at Christmas?

Perhaps it is the chord of memory touching the heart as we recall the Life which brought such an impact on the world twenty centuries ago. In a brief thirty-three years, He so fired the hearts of men to outshadow even the fiercest force of an atomic blast.

The spirit of love and humility generated by the Prince of Peace entralls every man, woman and child the world over, regardless of religious denomination. It is a living, breathing action so infectious that no one escapes its hypnosis.

There is none among us who has not learned the true meaning of the first lesson of His Sermon on the Mount.

We have come to know that if we keep the door of sympathy and understanding locked in us, then in turn this very same door, in the hearts of others, may be locked against us at a moment when we have need of a compassionate friend. Let us emulate the spirit and love of Him whose birth we celebrate.

Let us each remember the sacrifice He made that all of us could share and enjoy His manifold blessings.

May our collective efforts and our strength increase with each passing year and may the fruits of our efforts multiply in every corner of our city, nation and the world over.

Merry Christmas!

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH by Russ Arnold

THE LORD WAS BORN IN THE LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM AT LEAST 4 OR 5 YEARS B.C.

Matthew 2:1 SAYS THAT JESUS WAS BORN IN BETHLEHEM OF JUDEA, "IN THE DAYS OF HEROD, THE KING..."

Historical documents show that Herod, the Great, died about 4 years B.C., therefore the LORD was born several years before the beginning of the Christian Era -- WHICH MAKES OUR CALENDARS ALL WRONG!

The mother of one teen-ager caught on fast to jive talk. Her daughter asked, "Mama, may I hit the flick?" "I'm afraid I don't read you".

"Oh, Mother" said the youngster, you mean you don't know? Hit the flick is teen talk for "go to the movie" "In that case, ask me again after you rub the tub, scour the shower, spread the bed and swish the dish".

Teacher (on phone): You say Johnny has a cold and can't come to school today? Who's calling, please?

139 Governor St. Paterson,

This Week In AMERICAN HISTORY

BY WILLIAM BRODIE

BATTLE OF TRENTON

Christmas Day of 1776, and in Trenton, New Jersey, by the ice-choked Delaware River, the Hessians were making merry in their comfortable quarters. They were a part of the German troops hired by the British to fight the American patriots. Across the river, on the Pennsylvania side, Washington's ragged soldiers huddled in their camp.

It seemed as if this bitter winter might see the end of the patriot cause. Washington's army had fled across New Jersey before the stronger British forces. Soldiers had gone back to their homes by the hundreds. The rest of the shrinking American army, poorly equipped, unpaid, and often hungry, was held together mostly by the forcefulness of its great leader. A week before Christmas Washington wrote to a relative, "If every nerve is not strained to recruit the new army with all possible expedition, I think that the game is pretty near up."

Though the situation was bad, Washington decided on a bold stroke with the troops that he had. There was one hope left he decided — attack! He would cross the Delaware by night and attack the Hessians at Trenton on the morning of the day after Christmas before their merrymaking mood wore off. "It is necessity, dire necessity," Washington said.

While the Hessians were having a grand time the freezing Americans prepared to cross the icy river. At twilight of that cold Christmas night the little army of 2400 men in boats began its struggle with the ice floes and the rapid current. Washington had hoped to be across the river by midnight, but with the load of cannon and baggage it was past three o'clock in the morning before all the troops had crossed over.

Snow was falling. The night was very black and cold. At four o'clock it seemed too late to march on Trenton with hope of a surprise. Yet it was too late to turn back. Forward, then! The shivering troops began the nine mile march to Trenton.

They suffered severely as they marched down the river road. The snow had turned to freezing sleet and on the sharp slippery ice red stains showed where brave men marched with broken shoes. It was eight o'clock in the morning when the American advance began driving in the Hessian pickets. The enemy was unprepared. Colonel Rall, the Hessian commander, jumped out of bed to rally his men. He soon fell mortally wounded.

The battle was sharp and over in less than an hour. Over one hundred Hessians were killed and wounded, while almost a thousand with all their equipment, were captured. The American loss was two killed, a few dozen wounded, and two frozen to death on the march. That night Washington and his army were back in their camp across the Delaware with their prisoners and booty.

The victory at Trenton shattered British hopes for a quick end to the Revolution. The colonials rejoiced and took new courage for the struggle for liberty.

In Philadelphia the captured Hessians were marched through the streets so the people could see the proof of the American triumph. The patriots thanked God for the victory won by Washington's little army. Muhlenberg, the Lutheran patriarch, exclaimed "The Lord of Hosts has heard the cry of the distressed, and sent his angel to their assistance!"
