

Your Priority Is Triple A If You Act Today

Yes, the 1946 football season is several weeks away, but the time to act is now if you are going to assure yourself one of the better seats for the Rutgers gridiron campaign. By acting today you can be certain that you won't be a 'coffin corner kid' this year when Harvey J. Harman's charges participate in one of their toughest and most interesting schedules in Scarlet football history. The opening gun is set for September 28th against Columbia. The inclosed cards give full information on the method of obtaining season and individual game tickets.

Rutgers University
The State University of New Jersey

Please note the closing date on cards for the sale of season and individual game tickets.