

1869

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

1946

FOOTBALL

HOME GAMES

Oct. 5	Johns Hopkins	2:00 P.M.	$1.20	$0.60	Rutgers Stadium
Oct. 26	George Washington	2:00 P.M.	$1.80	$1.20	Rutgers Stadium
*Nov. 9	Lafayette	2:00 P.M.	$2.40	$1.20	Rutgers Stadium
†Nov. 23	Bucknell	2:00 P.M.	$2.40	$1.20	Rutgers Stadium

* Home Coming Day
† New Jersey Day

AWAY GAMES

Sept. 28	Columbia	2:00 P.M.	$3.00	$2.40	$1.20	Baker Field
Oct. 12	N. Y. U.	2:00 P.M.	$4.20	$3.00	$1.50	Polo Grounds
Oct. 19	Princeton	2:30 P.M.	$3.60	$1.80		Palmer Stadium
Nov. 2	Harvard	2:00 P.M.	$3.00	$1.50		Soldiers Field
Nov. 16	Lehigh	2:00 P.M.	$2.40	$1.20	$0.75	Taylor Field

Home Game Season Ticket—Adult, $5.70, Junior $3.90

WE HAVE TO BEAT —

COLUMBIA—September 28

The Columbia Lion has been eating well of late and will be looking forward to continuing with its red meat diet this fall. This will be the first high hurdle for the Big Red, and an opportunity to do something about that 20 to 6 mauling suffered in 1935.

JOHNS HOPKINS—October 5

The Blue Jays from Baltimore will come here with a new coach, "Howdy" Meyers, and a new forward passing attack for the season's first home game in the Rutgers Stadium. On their last visit to New Brunswick in 1932 they were set back 33 to 0.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY—October 12

We managed to pluck a bunch of Violets last year after a tough fight which ended in a 13 to 7 score. The New Yorkers had a bunch of man-mountain linesmen who, it is understood, have been bolstered by many veterans with pigskin experience. This is a chance to show the frau or girl-friend a big time in the Big City.

PRINCETON—October 19

Ahh—Those Princeton Boys. Our friendly enemies will be celebrating their 200th anniversary this year and the game will mark the 37th encounter of a series which started with the first intercollegiate football game back in 1869. The Scarlet is looking forward to making everything authentic by another winning score. Last year in a memorable battle, Princeton just nosed us out, 14 to 6.

GEORGE WASHINGTON—October 26

There are reports sifting back from the Capitol that George Washington will resume football with a bang after a four-year suspension. From the tough schedule G-W has set for itself, the visitors expect to be much more rugged than they were for their last visit in 1930. That score was 20 to 6.

HARVARD—November 2

This is the first gridiron meeting for the Scarlet and the Crimson. A Scarlet quintet traveled to Cambridge last Winter for an unhappy meeting with a top-notch Harvard basketball team. The football opposition is going to be on the same level with Dick Harlow back at the Crimson helm.

LAFAYETTE—November 9

No matter on what athletic field or court we meet them, Lafayette athletes are always aggressive, and hard to beat. In last fall's game a two-touchdown lead by the Scarlet didn't take any of the fight out of the Easton Leopard, and it came back so strongly that it looked for a time as if the score might be tied. A fifth Rutgers touchdown put the game on ice, but it was tough going all the way. It will be like that all the afternoon of November 9.

LEHIGH—November 16

If what we hear from Bethlehem is true, the Engineers of 1946 will be a vastly different football machine from the team the Scarlet defeated 25 to 0 in a dull contest last year. The Queensmen will have played through a tough schedule by the time they run into this outfit looking for a Middle Three victory.

BUCKNELL—November 23

The season-closer will be a bang-up battle with the Bucknell Bisons. The Thundering Herd from Lewisburg will come here to avenge a 9 to 7 defeat in 1942. Bucknell, it will grimly be recalled, is the team which spoiled an unbeaten record in 1924 by defeating that great Rutgers team, 12 to 7.

A WORD TO THOSE UNFORTUNATES —

Who have to work too late, or for any other reason, cannot see the Scarlet in action. Jack O'Reilly, who has covered Rutgers' track, baseball, basketball and swimming events, will be back at the microphone for the play-by-play description of the Scarlet in action over Station WHOM of Jersey City. If you can't be with us in the flesh, join us over the airwaves Saturday afternoon via WHOM, 1480 on your dial.