Robin Hood and Little John.

When Robin Hood was about twenty years old,
With a bow, arrows, and a sword;
He happened to meet Little John,
A bold and hardy Scot, right in the way.

Thee he called Little John, his name was large;
And his stature was very great.

According to the story, it is told,
That Robin Hood gave him a sword,
To help him in his journeys.

With all my whole heart, the stranger reply'd,
'Farewell, friend, I'll give you a sword.
This is a good sword, without any dispute,
The hilts and hangers did four shillings value.'

And then Robin Hood gave him the sword,
To help him in his journey.

With all my whole heart, the stranger reply'd,
'Farewell, friend, I'll give you a sword.'
This is a good sword, without any dispute,
The hilts and hangers did four shillings value.'

And then Robin Hood gave him the sword,
To help him in his journey.

With all my whole heart, the stranger reply'd,
'Farewell, friend, I'll give you a sword.'
This is a good sword, without any dispute,
The hilts and hangers did four shillings value.'

And then Robin Hood gave him the sword,
To help him in his journey.
