CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. All sales are for cash, the money value including packing and charges for freight must be sent with the order.
2. Transport and custom house charges, as also all risks are at the charge of the customer from the moment the package has left our warehouse.

3. All goods delivered to a railway, to the post, or to forwarding agents are considered as delivered to the customer, and our responsibility ceases from the moment they leave our warehouse.

Goods are only insured at the request of the customer, and such request must be renewed for each order.

In our declaration for the foreign custom house, we declare the approximate value of the goods, if we have no precise instructions from the customer. We do not accept any responsibility in any case for insufficient declarations.

4. Our goods are always carefully inspected before being packed and despatched in perfect condition. We decline all responsibility for delay, loss, damage or breakage from the moment the goods have left our workshops.

Unpack and verify the contents before signing for them, holding the carrier responsible for any breakages, and refuse the goods in case of dispute.

LET LEAVES VERY GENTLY.

5. Orders received from our travellers or representatives only hold good on a written confirmation from us.
6. We do our best to fulfill all orders immediately on receipt of same, but we accept no responsibility for any delays which may occur in the delivery of the goods.
7. All claims must reach us within eight days from date of delivery.
8. All orders sent us imply a tacit acceptance of the above conditions.

Our aim has been, and will always be, to satisfy our customers in every possible way, and we offer to exchange by return of post every film that does not suit our clients, provided of course that it has not been spoiled.

We cannot, however, accept to exchange topical events.

The measurements of the films are not guaranteed, the lengths stated with the titles are only approximate.

The films are always sent in tin boxes.
