IF NO ONE THROWS A monkey wrench into the proceedings before Monday night, those two vacancies on the Passaic Valley Sewage Commission and the county tax board will be filled by the time the state legislature gets through with its session in Trenton on that night.

NOT THAT ANY VACANCIES actually exist on either board . . . the old appointees are still drawing down their pay-checks and feeling quite happy over the previous inability of Democratic leaders to whip State Senator Walter H. Gardner into line . . . but that little trick has already been accomplished, 'tis rumored, and an agreement has been reached on the pair which will receive the long-delayed appointments.

AS MATTERS NOW STAND, Senator Gardner is reported to have yielded to the organization's demands and that means that Ellsworth M. Lee and Mrs. Katherine Lennon will be named . . . but don't be too, too surprised if there is a last minute change in plans . . . with Mr. Lee being side-tracked in favor of Former Mayor John V. Hinchliffe . . . It's our premonition that John V. will be reappointed to pave the way for a more solidified Democratic front next year.

THERE'S TALK TO THE effect that the local chapter of Labor's Non-Partisan league is going to do a little house-cleaning . . . a certain, powerful group is reported to be completely fed up with the political maneuvering of some of its leaders . . . and the theme song right now is: "There's Gonna Be Some Changes Made." . . . and they're saying, similar things about a powerful local union, too, where a rebellion is arising.

AND WHILE WE'RE ON the subject of organized labor, here's a tip straight from the battle-front . . . liquor salesmen in Paterson and all over the state will walk out on wholesalers if the latter do not meet their contract demands by Monday . . . the old pact expired last Tuesday.

IF YOU RUN INTO TOM Vigorito, ask him how the rest of his improvised lyrics for the ditty, "If I Had My Way," goes . . . Jimmy Sees is a busy man these days working like the deuce as publicity chairman for the Mayor's Christmas Basket Fund . . . and Republican workers are burning up the wires in their efforts to land jobs as rewards for their efforts in behalf of the party . . . some of them are already buzzing party bigwigs about plums that will not be ripe until 1940.

Military Rites Held For Krout

World War Ace Was Killed In Sparta Crash; Made His Home Here

Military rites were accorded to the late Captain Raymond W. Krout who was killed at Sparta, Tenn., in an air crash Sunday, were held at St. Paul's Episcopal church on Broadway and East 18th street here today.

They were performed by a special squadron of the 27th division of the New York National Guard, in which Captain Krout held a commission, with the Rev. William L. Griffin officiating at the regular church rites for the deceased.

Captain Krout, an aviator and World War ace pilot, lost his life together with Lieutenant Lansing C. Holden of New Canaan, Conn., Sunday.

He was 43 years old at the time of his death and had made his home with his wife, the former Dorothy McKee, and two daughters, Margaret, 14, and Rae, 6, at 438 15th avenue in this city.

He won several citations for bravery, skill and daring in the World War. He was active in business and athletics and played a great part in the activities of National Guard organizations in New York.

Freeholders Hit German Terror

The Board of freeholders called upon President Roosevelt to "take every action necessary to protect particularly the rights of American citizens" in Germany in a resolution which it adopted at its meeting yesterday.

The resolution described the situation as one of "countless acts of terrorism" and "unjustified attacks upon persons and property of people of the Jewish and Catholic faiths in various parts of Europe."

LOCAL LEGION MEN TO ATTEND DEDICATION

Members of local American legion posts will take part in the dedication of a memorial plaque in honor of the late George Breeman, holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor, in Passaic Sunday afternoon.

Borough President George U. Harvey, of the Bronx, N. Y. Congressman George N. Seger and State Senator Walter H. Gardner will also attend the exercises.

"Congratulations, dad!" "Same to you, son!" It's the Wagners, U. S. Senator Robert F., Sr., of New York, and son Robert F., Jr., congratulating each other on the Nov. 8 election outcome. Senator Wagner was re-elected to his congressional seat and young Wagner was elected to the New York state assembly.

250 VOLUNTEER SERVICES FOR MAYOR'S BASKET FUND

Spearhead Of Charity Drive Will Be Armory Event On Dec. 17

Mayor Bernard L. Stafford's Christmas Basket Fund committee announced plans yesterday for the sponsorship of a monster social in the Paterson Armory to raise money for the charitable cause which it directs each year.

The group, which is headed by Detective Captain James Smith, set the date of December 17 for the event. Captain Smith served as general chairman of the committee last year, too.

Mayor Stafford was designated as honorary chairman.

More than 250 volunteer workers will be active in this year's fund drive and will distribute approximately 10,000 tickets in this city.

Mayor Stafford, in addressing the committee last night, emphasized the fact that this year's goal is an even greater one than that attained last year. He urged committee members to submit names of needy families which will benefit from the receipt of Christmas food baskets. These names will be kept confidential to prevent recipients of the charity fund from suffering any embarrassment.

Other holding key positions on the Mayor's committee are Anthony J. Grossi, treasurer, Charles S. Eckert and Charles McGrath, secretaries, and James D. Sees, publicity chairman.

13 Cases Of Syphilis Are Detected Here

A total of 13 syphilis cases was reported among applicants for marriage licenses in this city since the recent state premarital blood test law went into effect here July 1.

The figures were made known by Dr. Frederick P. Lee, city health officer, in his report, issued this week.

Altogether, 843 applicants for marriage licenses submitted to blood tests given here.

Grant Co. Employees Negotiate

Disorders In Local Strike Cease; 5 Pickets On Trial Monday

The strike of women employees at the Grant department store entered a phase of negotiations for a settlement between the store management and union representatives here today.

No disorders marked the picketing of the store yesterday, in contrast to the excitement which resulted in the arrest of five persons on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

The quintet will come up for a hearing before Police Recorder Vincent C. Duffy on Monday morning. Their case was to have been heard earlier this week, but the local magistrate granted the defendants a postponement.

A good deal of friction had arisen because of the fact that Dyers' union pickets had taken part in the strike. In rebuttal to complaints of this nature, Robert B. Kennedy, business agent of Local 146, United Retail and Wholesale Employees, which is conducting the current strike, declared that the aid of the Dyers' union had been requested by his union.

Julia Smith Is Held In $1,000 Bail By Justice

Police last night arrested Mrs. Julia Smith, 48, of 455 River street, on a charge of performing an illegal operation upon Mrs. Eleanor Enhofer, 22, of 44 16th avenue.

Through her counsel, Mrs. Smith pleaded not guilty when arraigned before a justice of the peace here. She was held in $1,000 bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Mrs. Smith was arrested shortly after Mrs. Enhofer was admitted as a patient to St. Joseph's hospital, suffering from the effects of an illegal operation.

May Fill Two Board Vacancies Monday

Gardner And Organization May Agree

Sewage Commission, Tax Board Appointees May Be Named At Trenton

The possibility loomed this week that the long bickering between the Democratic party and State Senator Walter H. Gardner over appointments to the Passaic Valley Sewage commission and to the county tax board might come to an end when the state legislature meets in Trenton Monday night.

Gardner and the Democratic organization have been at odds, for many months over these appointments, but it was pointed out by political observers that the state senator's recent activity in behalf of the organization indicates that the breach may have been completely healed.

Long Vacant

At any rate, if the state senate's judiciary committee meets Monday night, various appointments throughout the state will come up for action, and those involving Passaic county may be among those to receive consideration.

Gardner has held up the appointments because of his insistence upon the naming of Councilman John J. Hamil of Clifton to the post on the Sewage board in opposition to Ellsworth M. Lee, the organization's choice for the post. Mrs. Katherine Lennon, Democratic State Committeewoman is the organization's choice for the tax board post.

Recalcitrant

Gardner, in all the months which have passed since the appointments came up, has been firm in his stand for Hamil, even to the extent of ignoring Governor Moore's suggestion that he yield to the organization.

Meanwhile Republican incumbents continued to draw down salaries for the posts involved. However, Gardner's recent activity in behalf of the organization indicates that an understanding may have been reached between the warring factions.

November 25 Xmas Foreign Mail Deadline

Further announcement of deadlines for Christmas mail to foreign countries was announced by Postmaster Thomas L. Kelley this week.

To the Azores, the deadline is November 25; to Ceylon, November 25; to Cyprus, December 1; to India, November 25; Mozambique, November 17, and to Liberia, Kenya, South Africa and Siberia, November 25.

Postmaster Kelley urged that parcel post be mailed as soon as possible because of customs formalities.

DR. LEE'S REPORT

Figures released this week by City Health Director Frederick P. Lee, concerning the four-month-old pre-marital blood test law as it applies to Paterson, reveal that 13 cases of syphilis have been detected among couples applying for marriage licenses in Paterson since the law went into effect on July 1.

While there is nothing to prevent rejected couples from hieing themselves to Elkton, Maryland or some other haven where marriages are performed as casually as nickel-and-dime store sales are transacted, the New Jersey law is a step in the right direction as far as safe-guarding the future generation is concerned.

A total of 843 blood specimens have been taken in this city alone, so present figures indicate that less than two per cent of the applicants tested here have had contact with syphilis.

The statement may sound bromidic, but it is nevertheless true, that if the 13 carriers of syphilis detected in this city alone, comprised the total uncovered in the entire state, the cost of administering the pre-marital law would be well spent in terms of the suffering and agony it would give society in future generations.

HURRICANE SELLS APPLES

One would not ordinarily look for a hurricane to promote the sale of apples. But the recent wind and flood devastation in New England produced that very result.

Except for the comparatively small part of the crop harvested before the storm, the New England apple crop was on the ground after the hurricane passed—four to five million boxes. Many of these apples were damaged when blown from trees, hence normal storage and marketing was impossible—they had to be consumed within a short time, or be a total loss.

As soon as the situation became known, without red tape or delay, the First National Stores of Boston, with retail outlets throughout New England, began publicizing the situation and selling these apples at once. It said to the public:

This emergency calls for your help. Use apples liberally. Eat two apples a day. Baked in pies, in sauces and in countless other ways, use apples; turn this emergency to your health and advantage. Your neighbor apple grower isn't asking for pity. He's got apples to sell. Buy them!

Thank you, my friends and readers, for your kind letters. It is gratifying to know one possesses so many unknown friends.

Those local reactionary political leaders should cease belittling about the Dewey defeat in New York. It is apt to create a repercussion among the minority groups throughout the county. The Dewey slogan—"Vote the American Way," was a bitter pill to swallow for any right thinking citizen. We salute a great liberal, Herbert H. Lehman, on his victory and the way his campaign was conducted.

What will the party leaders do with the following individuals, ignore them or give them the well-known hot foot?—Charles ("Texas") Silberman, John "Tenement House" Breslin, and many other lesser political lights.

This column is waging a fight to get the support of the citizenry throughout the county in an endeavor to wipe out dishonest voting. An organization is being formed in the county patterned after the New York group to be known as the Honest Ballot Association. It is the hope of the writer to enlist every conscientious and good American in their drive to wipe out this menace of floaters, buying votes and etc, within the coming year. We earnestly solicit your support in this movement, please write and give us your views on the subject. If you so desire your letter will be published in the Messenger.

$5,000 Theft Uncovers No Victim Here

New York police reported yesterday that they were holding two men for the theft of $5,000 from an aged Paterson woman, but an investigation today failed to locate the alleged victim of the theft in this city.

According to the New York authorities, the Paterson victim is Nellie Roon, 60, of 412 14th avenue. However, there is no Nellie Roon at that address, nor has an individual of that name been located in any other part of the city.

The pair, William A. Goodseit of New York, and John V. Boras of Jamaica, are nevertheless under arrest following the recovery of $3,400 of the Roon money. They are said to have confessed spending the rest.

D. M. Festa Dies; Services Today

A high requiem mass will be celebrated in St. Anthony's R. C. church this morning at 10 o'clock for David M. Festa, 57-year-old weaver, of 958 East Twenty-seventh street, who died Monday at the General hospital. Burial will be made in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Born in Italy, Mr. Festa lived in Paterson for fifty-five years. He was a member of the Societa Di M. S. San Leucio.

Surviving are his wife, the former Elissa Fusco; three sons, Larry, local orchestra leader, and Carl and Albert Festa; two daughters, Mrs. Angelina Pimombo and Josephine Festa, all of Paterson; three brothers, Thomas of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Frank and Anthony Festa, of Paterson; and three sisters, Mrs. Carl Risaland of Saratoga, N. Y.; Mrs. Martha Lombardi of Harrison, and Mrs. Rosa Thoma of Paterson.

The funeral will be under the direction of Louis J. Liguori.

TO WED SOON

Miss Elsa Oplinus will become the bride of Robert F. Jamieson on Thanksgiving Day.

Central Wary Of Upset In Clash With Eastside

Side Glances

By LOU FINK

Close to 40,000 local sport fans proved that good football is still appreciated around these parts. Paterson's Panthers attracted 18,000, turning away many hundreds. Close to 7,000 attended the Eastside - Garfield game, while 6,000 were in the stands at the colorful, but not well-played, Rutgers-Yale lightweight football game. And sandlot tilts accounted for 10,000 other fans.

Fortunate fans who saw the Paterson-Jersey City game were treated to football seldom seen in these parts. Kicking, ball-carrying, and passing were tops. The better-conditioned Giants were stopped by Kirkleski's substitutions at crucial moments.

Garfield's Benny Babula, who lives in Clifton, really went to town against Eastside. Superior weight and reserves won for what is probably New Jersey's outstanding team. The Ross-coached boys could have used their aerial attack to more advantage, however.

Turkey day will bring Eastside and Central highs together in what promises to be one of the most outstanding games played between these two schools. Cuccinello's and Stanczak's broken field running and the plunging and passing of Mosca and Smith should bring the crowd to its feet.

Saw Johnny (Vandy) Vander Meer the other day. He is putting on much needed weight, after losing 15 pounds during his ear-trouble period. He turned down a job in Cincinnati for $150 a week. Likes Paterson and intends to settle here after his baseball days are over. He's just as modest and likeable as ever.

The Boosters' basketball team looked good for their first game while losing to the Renaissance, colored champs of the world. Moe Frankel, who was off Saturday night, scored 17 points Sunday night as Troy defeated his former teammates, the Union City Reds. Paterson's own Phil Rabin also dented the double column in this tilt.

Rumors are that because of that new American league ruling limiting independent clubs to using two league players when facing any American league team, may cause the Boosters to fold up. Hope it isn't true. They deserve a lot of credit for bringing big-time basketball back again.

Jerry Molloy, coach of the champion St. Mary's basketball team, is getting the jump on his opponents by starting team practice. Would like to see Jerry get a break with some big school as coach.

FINK'S PARLAY: Celtics over the Boosters . . . Panthers to take the Brooklyn Eagles . . . and Central over Eastside by two touchdowns.

Big Help

Vincent Gavre

Big help to Wisconsin's drive toward a Big Ten championship is the work of Vince Gavre, quarterback, and one of the outstanding players in the Western conference.

Celtics Oppose Boosters Here

The Paterson Y. M. H. A.'s Boosters will swing into action again at the Y. M. H. A. Saturday night against the crack Kate Smith's Celtics in the second basketball game of the season here.

Leading the Celtics will be such stars as Pete Berenson, Charlie Johnson, Kramer, and Kaplan. It is the same quintet which dumped the Boosters in two out of three meetings last season.

The Boosters, as usual, will rely upon a quintet led by Fishy Rabin. Other local mainstays are Moe Frankel, Kurtzka, Kinsbrunner, Boardman and Paris.

Panthers Sponsor Junior, Senior '5's'

The Panthers of Paterson will sponsor two basketball teams during the coming cage season, it was announced this week.

The varsity quintet will play in the heavyweight class and will include local college stars in its lineup. It is coached by Hy Janowitz, local cage star. The junior varsity team will meet competition in the lightweight class.

Panthers Meet Brooklyn Foe Here Sunday

Paterson's Panthers, riding on the crest of their greatest triumph of the current season, will meet the powerful Brooklyn Eagles in a game slated for Hinchliffe Stadium here Sunday afternoon.

The Panthers will rate the edge over their American Professional Football association rivals in Sunday's contest chiefly because of their impressive showing in downing the hitherto undefeated and unscored upon Jersey City Giants by a score of 7 to 3.

In the first meeting between the teams, the Brooklyn eleven emerged victorious over the Panthers, but Sunday's little feat of downing the Jersey eleven immediately served to catapult the locals into the favored spot for their return meeting with the Flatbush pigskin toters.

Coach Kirkleski will rely upon the same combination which turned the Giants back last week in Sunday's game with the Eagles.

GOLFERS MEET

Members of the Passaic County Golf Course held a meeting and laid plans for the coming year this week.

Cardinal Manager

Ray Blades

New manager of the St. Louis Cardinals of the National league, Ray Blades, has been at the helm of the Cardinals' Rochester club of the International league since 1935. He has been with the Cardinal organization since 1922. He succeeds Mike Gonzales, coach, who handled the team during the last few games after Frankie Frisch was dropped.

BERGEN MITTMEN TO FACE LOCAL TEAM HERE TONIGHT

A program of sixteen fights will make up the card for the fourth annual Inter-County Diamond Gloves championships to be staged at the Paterson Armory, tonight. The champions of the recent tournaments conducted by the Bergen Evening Record at the Teaneck Armory will oppose the titleholders of the competition staged by the Paterson Evening News A. A. - Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, Local No. 1 of Paterson and the Mayor's Christmas Basket Fund of Paterson.

At stake is the Inter-County Gloves championship. The Passaic County team is defending the title annexed last year and leads two to one in this competition. The Bergen battlers will seek to regain the title and even the series Thursday at the Paterson drillshed. Beautiful new watches will be given all the contestants in the Inter-County show.

Bergen County boxers who will compete in the thrilling one night show were announced today. Leading the team of sixteen scrappers will be Vince Fratello of Hackensack, the state 160-pound A. A. U. mitt titleholder.

Slated to see action this week are the following fighters:

Bergen County, Open

Both Elevens Rest Up For Annual Game

Central, With Superior Record, Will Be Favored Over Old Rivals

High school teams in this area will be idle over the week-end awaiting crucial Thanksgiving day game, but this fact did not serve to bring any lull in fan interest this week in scholastic grid ranks.

On the tongues of most Paterson fans is speculation regarding the clash between Central and Eastside high school at the Hinchliffe stadium next Thursday morning.

Central will enter the annual Turkey day game with a superior record to that of Eastside, and will probably be strong favorites to turn their opponents back. But fresh in the minds of Colt Hill backers should be the notable instances in which underdog Eastside elevens turned back their favored foes on previous occasions.

The Thanksgiving day contest has added significance, for upon it will hinge the title of Passaic County Scholastic football league. Central holds the lead, but a set-back at the hands of Eastside will throw the race into a three-way tie with Passaic added to the picture.

As matters shape up now, Eastside will pit its strong and tested line against the flashy attack which Coach Lou Grover has fashioned around Gabe Mosca and Ray Stanczak, two of the finest ball-toters to wear the Colt Hill moleskins in many a season.

Eastside has a pair of reliable backs, itself, in Smith and Lou Cuccinello. A great battle, as the Central-Eastside clash always is, should develop when the old rivals take the field here next Thursday.

PAT FERRO

Though most of the radio stars of today have been recruited from the ranks of the stage and the screen, indications are that the network talent of tomorrow will be especially trained for radio. Such is the opinion of Virginia Payne, star of the "Ma Perkins" series. Only a few short years ago, Virginia points out, the individual who aspired to a career in radio, promptly took courses in stage technique, and then adapted their stage instructions and training to the needs of radio. Today, one can eliminate the effort expended to learn, and then unlearn, stage tricks, and arrange to concentrate wholly on radio work. Leading colleges have recognized the need for courses in radio technique, with the result that more than one hundred now offer instructions in radio writing, dramatics, production and other phases of broadcast.

The guiding light behind the haunting melodies you hear from Kit Kat Club over WOR-Mutual, is a one hundred ninety-four-pound maestro, who just misses being six feet tall, and who hails from the deep, deep south—to be exact, Mississippi. James Melvin Lunceford, his fond parents named him, but he is Jimmy Lunceford to you. In addition to leading his orchestra, Jimmie plays saxophone, clarinet, trombone and other instruments.

Jackie Jordan, who appears in "Your Family and Mine" can lay claim to being the oldest young troupier on the airwaves, for though only thirteen years old, Jackie is a veteran in every sense of the word, having appeared in a dozen important Broadway stage shows, and more radio programs that one can shake the proverbial stick at. Young Jordan has appeared in the radio programs known as "Pepper Young's Family"—Camel Caravan, Radio theatre, Gangbusters, and has guest-starred with such notables as Joe Cook, Bob Ripley and Kate Smith. Some of the important attractions that have carried his name on the cast sheets are Cole Porter's musicomedy success "Jubilee," a revival of Sir James M. Barrie's "Peter Pan"—"Goldeagle Guy"—"Tomorrow and Tomorrow" and "Green Waters."

GRID PLAYER SUFFERS CONCUSSION OF BRAIN

George Herget, 20, of 544 14th avenue was in the General hospital today suffering from a concussion of the brain which he received in a football game Sunday.

Passaros Open Basketball Card Tomorrow Night

The Passaro Boosters will open their current basketball season in a game scheduled for Public School No. 18 court tomorrow night with the Passaic Zankels.

The Passaic quintet is led by "Jiggs" Donahue, a high-scoring forward and also has Burns, Marchione, Chisman, Yacona and Furman in its lineup.

The Passaros will rely upon Pelzer, Rozema, Powers, Roush, Schmidt, Klomp, Conklin and Van Wyck.

DRIVE GOING OVER

Local Red Cross officials reported that their annual drive is going over successfully this week. A total of 1,250 has been collected to date.

Ryle To Be In Upsala Lineup Here Saturday

Paterson football fans will witness the first varsity collegiate football game ever staged in this city when the Upsala college eleven tangles with Albright college in Hinchliffe Stadium Saturday.

Of interest to local fans will be the home-coming of Rube Ryle, former Paterson Eastside football star, who is a backfield mainstay of the Upsala grid machine.

Both teams are rated strongly among the smaller college elevens of the East. Also of interest to local fans will be the appearance in an Albright uniform of Marshall Popelka, of Dover, who is rated by "Lone Star" Dietz, his coach, as one of the greatest fullbacks he has ever coached.

GIRLS' CAGE LEAGUE READY FOR CAMPAIGN

The North Jersey Girls' Basketball league completed plans for the coming season at a meeting in Babb-Smith's last night.

Teams from Paterson, South Paterson, Boonton, Pompton Lakes, Midvale, Passaic and East Rutherford are entered.

THEATRICAL NEWS

Behind the Scenes in HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL
Copyright, 1938
King Features Syndicate, Inc.

HOLLYWOOD.—Story in the released version of "Men With Wings" is far from the original plot. Fear of censorship caused sweeping changes. As first planned, Fred MacMurray, the adventure-loving aviator, was to be shot down in Spain fairly early in the picture. The plane that did it was to be one of the bombers being manufactured with MacMurray's own money by his wife, Louise Campbell, and by his buddy, Ray Milland. MacMurray was to hit the ground alive but was to be captured and lined up before a Spanish firing squad.

"Have you any last word to say?" he was to be asked.

"Yes," he was to reply, "what's the war about?"

The officer in charge of the squad then was supposed to shrug and order the execution to go ahead.

Finish of the picture also was to have been very different. On hearing that MacMurray had been shot down by one of their own bombers, Milland and Miss Campbell were to go before the smug board of directors of their company and refuse to make any more ships to kill people. They were to devote their efforts to commercial aviation, vowing to make planes that would bring the countries of the world so close together that they would be afraid to fight each other. The last shot of the picture was to have been a giant plane getting ready to make a night takeoff at an airport. An announcer was to say: "All aboard for New York, London, Paris, Shanghai, Manila, San Francisco and return to New York."

Even the amateur can guess why the picture never came out that way.

Louise Rainer will have a full six months in which to enjoy a second honeymoon with Clifford Odets and to do a Broadway play is she so desires. The star has this time coming under her leave of absence from M-G-M.

What sort of heresy is this? Don Ameche says that Hollywood homes are too much like Union stations, so he is giving up his 12-room house to move into a cottage just half that size. The new place is in the valley just two blocks from where Ameche bought a home for his parents. It's colonial style and Ameche designed it himself. In the six rooms will live the actor, his wife and their two children. Close quarters are nothing new to Ameche. In Kenosha, Wis., he grew up with seven brothers and sisters.

Faced with the necessity of keeping close tab on the working hours of all players making under $1,000 a week, the Goldwyn studio set out the other day to equip itself with time clocks. It found out that there wasn't one to be had. Other companies had bought up all the available supply. This is only part of the confusion caused by the new agreement covering working hours of actors. Any player in the less-than-a-thousand class must punch the clock on an average of eight times a day. On one lot, Comedienne Joan Davis exercised her sense of humor and solved the problem temporarily by hiring a girl to follow her about and do the actual punching.

Point rises as to how far a star should go in being courteous to fans. As Anita Louise was leaving the Victor Hugo the other night, a young man grabbed her and kissed her on the cheek. Before she could recover from her astonishment, he pulled out a piece of paper and said: "Please sign this statement, admitting that I did kiss you."

The young man had made a $10 bet with friends in Atlanta, Ga., that he could pull off the stunt.

Miss Louise won the year's prize for amiability by signing the paper. Foolishly, we'd say.

STATE

Mae West sings three new songs in "Klondike Annie," which opens Tuesday for three days at the State theatre—and another new number is also introduced in the film.

The melodies offered by the blonde star are "I'm an Occidental Woman," by Gene Austin; "Little Bar Butterfly," by the same composer; and "Mr. Deep Blue Sea," by Austin and Jimmie Johnson.

The other number in the production is "Cheer Up Little Sister," also by Austin.

All four melodies were written especially for the star and picture. "Klondike Annie" is a story of Gold Rush Days in

RIVOLI

Six rugged screen actors are featured in "The Storm," Universal's powerful drama of marine disasters which starts today at the Rivoli theatre.

Real life experiences aboard ship helped to qualify Charles Bickford, Barton MacLane, Preston Foster, Tom Brown, Andy Devine and Frank Jenks for their roles in this stirring narrative of heroism, at sea. Nan Grey plays the one leading feminine character in the film.

Charles Bickford, for example, was at one time the proud owner of two good-sized whaling boats which he purchased at auction.

Barton MacLane, who plays the despotic Captain Cogswell in "The Storm," still has vivid memories of his work as an engine room wiper on the giant liner "Leviathan" when he was just out of school.

"Annabel Takes A Tour," second in the series depicting the hectic adventure of a movie star and her press agent, brings Jack Oakie and Lucille Ball back to the screen in their previously established roles.

FABIAN

"Brother Rat," the gay comedy of life in a military school, which ran on Broadway stage for eighteen consecutive months, is now a picture and will have its first local showing today at the Fabian.

It is a Warner Bros. production and stars Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane. A considerable portion of the picture was made on the grounds of the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va., and the entire cadet corps of that famous and historic school, 700 strong, took part.

This story revolves around the mishaps of one of the lads who has disobeyed a rule of the Institute and has secretly taken himself a bride. Not only that, but he's about to become a father.

Others in the splendid cast include Johnnie "Scott" Davis, Jane Wyman, Ronald Reagan, Gordon Oliver, Henry O'Neill, Olin Howland, Jessie Busley, Louise Beavers.

The fighting family physician—his sacrifices and thankless efforts in the interests of good health—his privations and relentless war on hypocrisy for the sake of his townsfolk—his story is dramatically depicted in this week's co-feature "A Man to Remember."

GARDEN

Fast farce comedy, starring Constance Bennett, is promised in Universal's "Service De Luxe" at the Garden Theatre.

Of note also is the initial screen appearance of Vincent Price, New York stage star who is the latest to join the ranks of Hollywood leading men. Established himself firmly in Broadway theatrical circles by his excellent performances in the role of Prince Albert opposite Helen Hayes during the two-year run of Miss Hayes' play, "Victoria Regina," in New York.

With the two principals will be seen a cast which includes Charles Ruggles, Mischa Auer, Helen Broderick and Joy Hodges in chief supporting roles.

Jane Withers latest 20th Century-Fox escapade, appropriately titled "Always in Trouble" is also at the Garden Theatre. Jean Rogers, Arthur Treacher, Robert Kellard, Eddie Collins, Andrew Tombes, Nana Bryant
