EVEN A SIXTH SENSE won't help the political observer to keep track of current developments in the Democratic party . . . they're being made at such a rapid pace that it is impossible to present an accurate or stable picture of the situation.

WARD LEADERS WHO REPRESENT the rank and file of the party have openly turned thumbs down on the selection which the Jersey City "power-house" has made in reference to the Democratic candidate for mayor . . . they have reacted in this manner because it is their contention that the choice of a local candidate lies with them and not with any outside group . . . and so far, it is a case of being unable to force a man to eat bread when he hankers for pie.

ONE DIRECT RESULT OF the current deadlock on the mayoralty situation is the increase in tongue-wagging and in the circulation of gossip which we had previously considered to be at its peak . . . actually, during a stroll along the main stem these evenings, you can hardly escape being belabored with three or four versions of the same political incident.

ONE OF THESE STORIES now making the rounds is of interest . . . it is to the effect that Recorder Vincent C. Duffy, visiting the "big boss" in Jersey City as an "ambassador" for former Mayor John V. Hinchliffe, used the occasion to sell himself to the Democratic chieftain . . . insisting that his name on the ticket as candidate for mayor would actually bring the entire Democratic slate once more into the victory column . . . if the story is true, Duffy must have done an expert job in selling himself to the Jersey City moguls.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, which will meet tonight, was originally scheduled to convene Friday night . . . the fact that the date was advanced is taken as an indication by some that sufficient votes to okay the Duffy selection have been rounded up . . . if the meeting is called off tonight, a development to the contrary will have taken place . . . come what may, however, you can look for Public Works President Gavin to stay in the fight for the party's nomination until the bitter end . . . all of which will provide a lively primary election in September.

IT'S HARD TO BELIEVE IT, and we won't until we see it in print . . . however, word is around that a stalwart Democratic chieftain, who has been a party bulwark for years and years, will throw the towel in and call it a day . . .

Ward Leaders Unwavering In Support Of Gavin For Mayor

Gavin Supporters May Lose Posts, 'Report' Says

A report was current in city hall circles today that political workers who are now on the government payroll and who have been active in circulating petitions in behalf of Public Works Commissioner James Gavin's candidacy for the Democratic nomination for mayor, will feel the "axe" within the next few days.

An attempt to track down its source proved fruitless until press time, but it persisted throughout the day.

Accompanying the general rumor was a story to the effect that one minor public employee who was seen soliciting signatures for Commissioner Gavin's petition had already been discharged from his position.

It is a fact that great pressure is being brought to bear on higher ups in the party to line up in support of the designation of Police Recorder Vincent C. Duffy as the Democratic candidate for mayor, but no actual cases of discharges have as yet been discovered.

So-called organization leaders are known to have adopted a strenuous policy of persuasion in an effort to reconcile all factions and individual workers to the order which came from Jersey City earlier in the week.

Charged With Incest, WPA Man Is Jailed

While police officials were trying to link him to more crimes, Edwin Robinson, WPA worker of 142 Spruce street, was awaiting the action of the Grand Jury in the county jail here this week.

Robinson is charged with incest, being accused of misconducting himself with his 15-year-old daughter and also with soliciting other men for illicit relationships with his daughter.

A lengthy prison sentence is in store for the defendant on the charge of incest, alone.

Now It's "Flying Corrigan's"

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Corrigan

Douglas "Wrong Way" Corrigan, who landed in Ireland last year while "heading" for California, gets a flying partner—and it's none other than the new Mrs. Corrigan. HOUSING FUNDS EXHAUSTED, FHA WILL INFORM PATERSON

The Messenger learned from an authoritative source today that the Federal Housing Administration's director, Nathan Straus, will shortly notify the City of Paterson that all funds for Federal housing projects have been exhausted.

Such an announcement will be a serious set-back to the many thousands of poorly housed residents of Paterson who had hopes for securing decent living conditions in the form of a local housing project.

Paterson's opportunity of securing a Federal grant of $5,000,000 for such a project was effectively impeded by an obstructionist bloc which appeared to dominate Mayor Stafford's fact-finding committee, assigned to study the feasibility of the project.

Any hope of obtaining such a project for Paterson now reverts to the possibility that Congress may make a new appropriation for housing next year.

STRANGE BOOTY

Hydrangea Bush And Watermelon Are Stolen Here

Local thieves are selecting strange booty as objects of their operations, according to thefts reported to police this week.

A hydrangea bush was stolen from the lawn of Mrs. L. Phillips of 33 East Park drive, while Modestino Indoli of 241 Madison avenue told police a watermelon had been taken from his store.

DEFERS BID

Referee in Bankruptcy Grimshaw this week deferred confirmation of the bid of the Sterling company to purchase the assets of the Trio Dye Works.

Balk At Order To Transfer Backing To Duffy

A bloc of Democratic ward leaders, said to consist of 10 of the 11 in the city, continued to stand steadfastly by James J. Gavin, president of the board of works, as their choice for the mayoralty nomination today.

Their stand was in opposition to the designation of Police Recorder Vincent C. Duffy as the organization's candidate for Mayor by state party leaders in Jersey City.

To Confer Again

A series of conferences between state, city and ward leaders, more of which are scheduled to be held today, failed to break the deadlock which came into being after it was made known that Mayor Bernard L. Stafford will not seek reelection to office in November.

Officially, Paterson ward leaders have not taken any action, as yet, preferring, like most leaders of the party, to wait until a definite announcement of his future policy is made by Mayor Stafford.

"The ward leaders have not been officially notified that Mayor-County Chairman Stafford will not be a candidate for reelection," a prepared statement from them read. "Until such notice is given, we are not in a position to take action."

Support Gavin

However, it is reliably reported that a decisive majority of ward leaders are supporting the candidacy of Public Works President Gavin.

Public Works Commissioner Gavin, meanwhile, reiterated his determination to stay in the fight for the party's nomination for mayor.

"I'm in the race to stay," was his answer to all questions surrounding the current intra-party bickering.

Longo On Trial For Relief Fraud

Charged with obtaining relief through fraud, Harry Longo of 148 Beech street will go on trial before Judge Alexander M. MacLeod in the Second District Criminal court today.

The complainant in the case is Welfare Director John Greene.

Iozzio Returns To Face Jersey Justice

Pennsylvania Prison Term Finished, He Faces Old Charges

Paterson Man And Two Others To Be Tried For Midland Park Kidnap-Hijack

Thomas Iozzio, recently released from the Western State Penitentiary after serving part of a 10 to 20-year term for a crime committed in that state, was on his way back to face Jersey Justice today.

The Paterson man is one of three men who have not yet been brought to trial in connection with the hijack-kidnap case which occurred in Midland Park on July 19, 1933, and is being brought to Bergen County at the request of Prosecutor John J. Breslin.

Kidnaped Cliftonite

He is charged with taking part in the hold-up of Otto Weinberg of Clifton while the latter was driving a truckload of cigarettes and patent medicines through Midland Park. The gang which committed the robbery brought him to Paterson and held him captive there until the goods were disposed of.

Alfred "Doc" Hoffspiegel, a Paterson physiotherapist, served a two to four year term in the state prison for his part in the crime, having been convicted of hiding the merchandise and keeping Weinberg captive in the basement of his home, while David Butler, also of this city, served a similar sentence for taking part in the crime.

Sully Still In Prison

The fourth member of the gang, Joseph Sully, escaped with Iozzio to Pennsylvania where both were sentenced to that state's penitentiary for carrying concealed weapons and assault with intent to rob. Sully is still serving time for the crime, but a detainer has been filed against him and he will be brought here upon his release.

Iozzio's time in the Pennsylvania prison was shortened because of good behavior and also because of his previously clear record. To be tried with him as a suspected accomplice is Harry Romaine, now at liberty, but whom police are confident they can quickly pick up.

Rainbow Girls' Outing Saturday

The highlight of the summer season of Paterson Assembly No. 7, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, will take place at King's Cove, Lake Hopatcong, Saturday, when the chapter's outing will be held.

Thieves Ransack Public School 14

Police this week are seeking the identity of a band of thieves who ransacked Public School No. 14, at Union avenue and Coral street, but who apparently were unrewarded for their efforts.

A report by Daniel Moore, janitor, said that every room in the building had felt the effect of the marauding thieves, but that nothing valuable was missing. A thorough check, however, will be made before the week is out.

Since no doors or windows were broken, police believed the thieves gained entrance to the building by means of a key.

Smith, resigned president of the university, has been returned to Baton Rouge, La., from Brockville, Ontario, where he was arrested along with his wife, accused of assisting him. Bond for Smith was fixed at $50,000. This is the latest picture taken of Smith.

Maiden Names "Out" For Wives

At the request of the Internal Revenue Department, married women who are either city, county or state employees were ordered this week to assume their married names instead of maiden names as far as their payroll records are concerned.

Income tax collectors instituted the order so that they might add wives' salaries to that of husbands' when computing income tax assessments. Because of a Supreme Court ruling, government employees are no longer exempt from income tax.

LET THE PRIMARY DECIDE IT

The Democratic party in Paterson is now split into several camps because state leaders have seen fit to interfere in the normal routine of the selection of a candidate for the office of Mayor.

The procedure adopted by Jersey City in the Democratic party's affairs in Paterson has alienated a group of party members who resent the policy of dictation from "outside" interests, and from all appearances are prepared to carry their difference of opinion right into the primary election.

This, we believe, is the proper approach to solving the problem which has currently arisen. The primary election is designed to give the rank and file a voice in the selection of candidates, and in its true function, is representative of the democratic way of doing things. If state leaders are to dictate the selection of local candidates, there obviously is no useful purpose in having ward leaders and county committeemen other than to bring out the vote each election day.

The only way to clear up the present muddle in the party is to revert to the old practice of permitting the rank and file to decide upon the identity of Paterson's Democratic candidate for Mayor. And this can be done by the orderly and legal procedure of getting out petitions for the various aspirants for the nomination, placing their names on the primary ballot, and letting the party members, themselves, select the man who is to be their standard-bearer in the election.

But most important of all, after such a decision has been reached by the party as a whole, differences should be immediately forgotten and party ranks should be welded together in time for the general election which is to follow. In this way, we are certain that no lasting schisms will be found in the Democratic ranks and the party will be stronger and more unified than it has been in recent years.

FROM RAGTIME TO SWINGTIME

Isidore Whitmark, of the old-time House of Whitmark, has written an autobiography, "From Ragtime to Swingtime," which encompasses folklore of modern popular music.

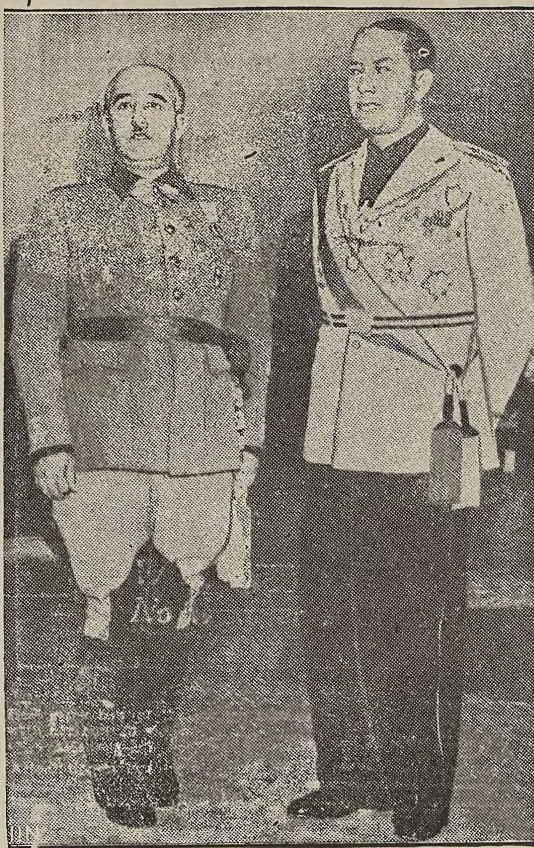

It may seem like a far-fetched theory to presume that melodious music results from reasonably sound, happy economic conditions in a nation, and that harsh music is an expression of disturbed mental conditions and national unrest.

But when one listens to the melodies of the late Victor Herbert and other composers of his time whose compositions Whitmark published, one wonders whether a more or less contented era of our nation is not reflected in such music. Particularly does this thought grow when one listens to the modern "swing" music with its raucous notes and seeming discords. Modern music such as "swing" seems to base its excuse for existence on rhythm, but most of the "swing" rhythm has the monotony of the jungle tom toms.

In reading Whitmark's book, one is impressed with the individuality of the composers of that era. They did not all play alike or look alike. There was individuality in their music, as there was in their lives. That is something that is lacking in most of the music and orchestra leaders today—music is just big business to them, ground out at so much per grind over the radio or in the night club. The world trend toward regimentation in human affairs seems to be reflected in the field of modern popular music.

Mr. Whitmark's book covers an era of individuality definite in this nation as the era which saw individuality which built the railroads

As We Like It

...by MILO

Wonder how many know the identity of the individual who made a hurried trip to Maine and persuaded John V. Hinchliffe not to accept the Democratic nomination for sheriff on the grounds that he was the only logical candidate for Mayor since Bernard L. Stafford decided not to seek reelection?

Mayor Stafford, incidentally, was forced to line up with the Duffyites and swing his support away from Jim Gavin because his professional career is currently at stake.

Great pressure has been brought to bear upon members of the executive of the Democratic party to have them go along with Duffy's candidacy. For them, too, jobs and political futures are at stake.

There seem to be two philosophies prevalent in Democratic ranks. One is of the belief that "you can't get along without Jersey City." And the other feels "... to blazes with Jersey City—let's run our own affairs."

Unless something entirely unforeseen occurs in the interim, that meeting of ward leaders who have already come out flatly for the candidacy of James Gavin, president of the board of works, which has been called for Monday evening, may see an outspoken endorsement of Gavin voted on the floor. Edward J. O'Byrne will preside at the session which will be held at the Veterans' Hall, 169 Van Houten street.

One announcement that's puzzling the rank and file is to the effect that the selection of Vincent C. Duffy for Mayor was made by the state organization. If that is so, the average party member wonders, why was it that State Committeeman O'Byrne and State Committeewoman Mrs. Lennon were not aware of this development until announcement was made in the press? Aren't they part of the state organization?

As a matter of fact, the Democrats aren't the only ones who are discomfited by the present tangle in their ranks. The Republicans now are forced to wait until a Democratic candidate for mayor is chosen before they can put their finger on the man who will carry their colors into the election.

Ribbon Workers Decide To Continue Strike

Walkout Now In Ninth Week; Negotiations Off

Taylor-Friedsam Company Officials Refuse To Yield On Higher Wages, Union O.K.

Employees of the Taylor-Friedsam Ribbon company this week voted unanimously to continue their strike which is now in its ninth week.

By their action, they turned down the company's offer to have them return to their jobs without wage increases or recognition of their union—the Textile Workers' Union of America. These are the salient demands of the employees now on strike.

Union's Stand

A statement issued by union leaders this week read as follows:

"Our workers will refuse to accept any offer from the firm unless it includes a union shop and other concessions.

"We are determined to continue this fight and we hope that the support which our trade union locals have given us will go on. With this co-operation, our workers are convinced that they cannot lose and that the firm will have to recognize that we must be dealt with justly."

Company's Proposal

Officials of the Taylor-Friedsam company had offered a proposal whereby its employees would return for a period of six months under the same conditions which prevailed before the strike was called. At the conclusion of that period of time, officials had promised, a formal agreement with the Textile Workers Union of America would be considered.

The unanimous decision of the employees to continue the strike brought an end to the latest negotiations. No date was set for their resumption.

Grimm Out For 3rd Straight Victory At Stadium

Side Glances

—by "YANK"

We'll open this week's column of hash by saluting Aime Oplinus of the Triangle Cycling club who is simply burning up McLean Boulevard on his two-wheeler these fine Sunday afternoons. Oplinus evidently is to amateur cycling in these parts what Patrick Edward Comiskey is to local heavyweight ranks—jest plain anathema.

It'll be interesting to see how Aime does in the state cycling championships at Bloomfield in August. Mebbe he'll get plenty of opposition from the out-of-townners.

Interesting story which gained circulation this week was to the effect that Bill Terry, pilot of the badly crippled New York Giants, was angling to have Eddie Mayo return to his old, though brief, stand at the Polo Grounds.

If that's so, times certainly do change, for it wasn't so long ago that Terry termed his purchase of Mayo from Baltimore as one of the few mistakes he has made in his baseball career. That remark must have put quite a crimp in Mayo's regard for the Giant manager, for Eddie, just before joining the Jints several years back, told reporters that Terry was his idol and that his life-long ambition was to play under his management.

What's this we hear? Joe Harrison is going to make a comeback? So we're told by friends of his who say he is ready to fight Jackie "Kid" Berg on a winner-take-all basis at the Belmont Park arena. We seriously wonder if the former Garfield welterweight star can make the weight, let alone approach something like his old form.

We suppose the next move for those Belmont Park promoters will be to line up a bout between Sixto Escobar and Paterson's own Johnny Juliano. A match like that would pack them in and would give the Silk City elf a chance at something bigger than chicken feed in the way of ring purses.

Well, as we close this week's column, one thing seems pretty certain. And that is that Paterson's Roy Lazer got the "business" when the decision in his bout with Ohio's Buddy Knox went to the latter. Every account of the fight we've read is tinged with the opinion that the nod should have gone to Roy. At any rate, winner or loser, it's a swell build-up for a return match between the pair.

LOCALS LOSE TWICE

The Paterson Cricket Club lost two matches over the weekend to Brooklyn and Waverly.

IN STATE MEET

Oplinus To Lead Local Cyclists In Bloomfield Title Races

Aime Oplinus, crack bicycle rider of the Triangle Cycling club of Paterson, will show his wares in the state championship meet in Bloomfield next month, it was announced this week.

Oplinus has been riding off with honors at Sunday meets held at McLean boulevard in this city.

Sunday's Card Lists Trio Of Baseball Tilts

Three stellar diamond attractions are on Sunday's card for fans in the Paterson area.

Headlining the day's contests is a Paterson and District league clash between the Red Sox and the Wonders at Hinchliffe Stadium Sunday morning. The contest will get under way at 10:30 a.m.

In other contests of the day, the Allendale A's will play at A.C., and the Clifton Capitols home against the Northvale will clash with the Hawthorne Merchants at Olympic Park.

Farmers Face R. & Q. Nine

Only three baseball games will be played in this area Friday night, but all loom as tightly contested affairs.

The Wrights will travel to Passaic to meet the Cubs of that city in a regular Paterson and District league game, while Eastside Park will be the scene of a clash between the Preakness Farmers and Ries and Quackenbush.

Rounding out the evening's card is a clash between the Hawthorne Merchants and the Haledon A.C. at Fair Lawn.

Samanchik And Grassey Clash

Bill Samanchik, former county amateur champion, will meet Joe Grassey in one-half of the semi-final competition for the Hobart cup in the annual golf tournament at the Passaic County Golf course Saturday.

In the other semi-final match, Frank Wood will meet the winner of the match between Bill Roberts and Jim Christie who will play off a tie during the week.

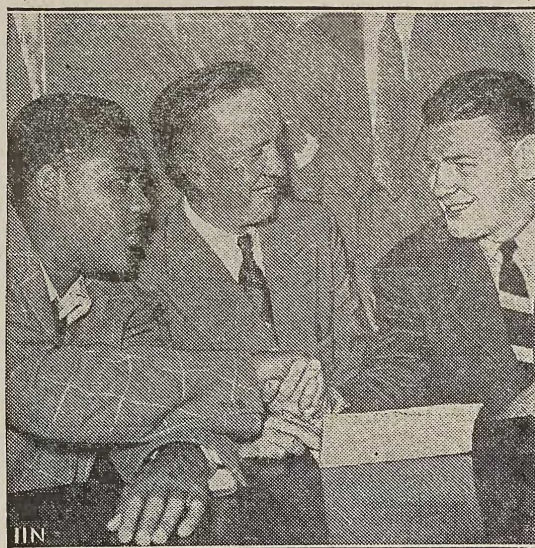

PINE BROOK AT WYCKOFF

Pine Brook will travel to Wyckoff Sunday to meet the Crescents of that township in a baseball contest.

CANOVAS WIN, 4-1

The Canovas registered a 4 to 1 victory over the Chadwicks at Sandy Hill Park this week.

Pastor and Louis to Battle

Joe Louis, heavyweight champion of the world, shakes hands with Bob Pastor after the two signed for a bout set for Sept. 20 in the champ's home town, Detroit. The contract for a 20-round battle was signed in Detroit in the presence of John J. Heltche, center, a member of the Michigan boxing commission.

Crack Pennsy Drivers Enter Meet At Nutley Velodrome

Pennsylvania's contributions to the midget auto racing ranks, all made of stern, unyielding stuff as they pour it on in their speed quest for victory, will be in the field at the Nutley Velodrome board track twice this week as they compete in the meets scheduled there on Saturday and Wednesday nights.

The Quaker State trio—Babe Bower, Tommy Hinnerschitz, and Jim Forte—will be bidding for the coveted feature wins in these meets. All three of these Pennsylvania drivers have been turning in impressive showings on the Velodrome speedway so far but they want to move to the top-flight ranks and they realize that there is no admittance to the charmed circle of the midget car lineup without a main-event decision at Nutley.

The racing programs Saturday and Wednesday will start at 8:30 o'clock with the time trials being the first event. The ten-lap elimination heats will follow with the semi-final and consolation races consisting of fifteen laps, and the main event set for thirty-five. Officials of the A.A.A. contest board will be in charge of the meets.

Start Course In Swimming

Barbour's Pond is the scene of free swimming lessons as part of the "Learn To Swim" Week observation here this week.

Experienced tutors will be in charge of instruction which is being sponsored by the Passaic County Park Commission.

Gesell, Renard, Fusco Out To Halt Coast Star

Competition Will Be Resumed At Hinchliffe Stadium Track Friday Night

First midget auto racing star to score two main event victories at that track, Perry Grimm of Los Angeles will seek his third straight when he competes in the weekly meet at the Hinchliffe City Stadium in Paterson Friday night.

Not only did the hard-driving Pacific Coast chauffeur annex Win Number 2 last week to shatter precedent this season but he also turned the trick in consecutive order. Accordingly, when he competes in Friday's racing program, he has a chance to stretch the streak to three in a row.

Grimm turned in an impressive triumph last week as he blazed around the Paterson track in front of the strongest field ever to compete there. Pouring it on from the start and increasing the lead provided by his pole position, he beat to the finish line such drivers as Duke Nalon, Babe Bower, Paul Russo, Sam Hanks, Red Redmond, Ernie Gesell, Henry Renard, Joe Chitwood and Duane Carter.

This field will be competing in this meet Friday night, too, and endeavoring to halt Grimm's stride. The easterners will be gunning for him again and this includes such threats as Gesell, Renard and Walt Fusco.

Wright "9" To Face Sox In Exhibition Tilt

Five baseball contests are on tonight's schedule for Paterson and vicinity.

Eastside Park will be the scene of an exhibition contest between two of Paterson's strongest teams—Wright Aeros and the Red Sox, while the Winzall Red Sox meet the Macks at Parish Oval.

Other contests pit the North Haledon Firemen against the Tenth Warders at Pennington Park and the Lincoln Park club against Pine Brook at Pine Brook.

Behind the Scenes in HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL

Copyright, 1939
King Features Syndicate, Inc.

HOLLYWOOD. — If either of Charlie Chaplin's sons becomes an actor, it will be Sidney, declare those who are in a position to predict. Sidney is the comedian's first born. He is stocky, like Charlie's brother for whom he was named, is an inveterate clown and is keen on sports.

Sidney Chaplin

The younger boy, Charles Spencer, Jr., more closely resembles his father in temperament. He is a dreamer and a serious student. Heads his class at the Black-Fox Military academy where both youngsters attend. He also shows definite gifts as a pianist and as a writer.

Hasn't much interest in competitive sports but is a cadet captain of the junior corps, outstripping Sidney who is only a sergeant.

During the summer vacation both boys are living on their mother's ranch.

Report here is that Felix Salten, author of "Bambi" and of "Florin," has been released from a German concentration camp and is in Switzerland preparing to come to Hollywood. Both the above stories will be early pictures. Disney is doing "Bambi" and Winfield Sheehan will film "Florina" for M-G-M.

Too bad some photographer didn't wander into the dance hall at Hermosa Beach the other night. He would have gotten a scoop. . . Vera Zorina and her husband, George Balanchine, out skylarking, entered the rumba contest and won first prize—two 50-cent dinners at a nearby Chinese restaurant. Nobody recognized them, say the film pair, who got a great kick out of the experience.

The new Mickey Rooney song, "Love on the Range," must be pretty good. Bing Crosby is making a record of it this week.

Braving the war scare, Edward G. Robinson is heading for Europe as soon as M-G-M gives the final okay on the picture, "Blackmail." The star will be accompanied by his wife and his six-year-old son, Manny.

While confident that there won't be any outbreak of hostilities, Robinson is taking no chances. In Paris, he will charter an airplane and keep it standing by . . . to fly the family to a neutral port in case of emergency.

Talked to John Garfield, and he still insists that he will return to Broadway to do a play. Under his contract, he says, he can demand a leave of absence from Warner Brothers in January and can stay away a whole year if his footlight engagement lasts that long.

"I still feel that you've got to get away from this town occasionally," says John.

Garfield admits that Warners have done all right by him but his real ambition is to do an anti-war picture.

If the stork delivers a boy to the W. S. Van Dykes in October, the youngster will be named Winston Stewart. This will give him the same initials as his father, "W. S." They will stand for different names, however. The W. S. in Director Van Dyke's name is for Woodbridge Strong.

Paulette Goddard is chafing at the leash on account of the many delays in the start of Chaplin's new comedy. She has an offer from Anita Loos to play Dorothy in the coming revival of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." This is the production in which Marie Wilson will be Lorelei.

Paulette makes no secret of the fact that she would like to accept the offer. While waiting for Charlie, she already has done parts in "The Cat and the Canary" and "The Women."

Buddy Westmore, Martha Raye's ex, is telling friends that anything can happen now that Judy Starr's returned to Hollywood. . . . The heavy makeup Humphrey Bogart wore in "The Return of Dr. X" has given him a case of skin poisoning. He can't shave for a week and Warners will have to shoot around him in "The Roaring Twenties." . . . Twosomes around the town: Lorraine Sender and Jack Warner, Jr., at the Trocadero; ditto Doris Carson and Chuck Isaacs . . . and you should have seen Joy Hodges snapping pictures of couples on the dance floor . . . with a camera borrowed from a press photographer. . . . Jackie Cooper, Betty Field and several others of Paramount's "Seventeen" company were left stranded on location when a car thief stole their transportation, a rented limousine. . . . Florine McKinney may be in a new Jerome Kern show.
