Natalie Darwin, left, and Luna Kaufman were colorfully costumed for the Oriental motif of Tivoli II. Hundreds enjoyed the happy goings-on at the Temple on January 29. More photos inside.

SISTERHOOD

By JEAN TOBEY

This year Sisterhood Sabbath will be the same and yet different. Roberta Sutker wrote a beautiful service two years ago and since beauty bears repeating, Roberta has graciously consented to have it done again. In addition to this service there will be three readings from Al Vorspan's humorous book, "So the Children Are Revolting." This is being presented as a springboard for discussion of values and ethics as related to children, parents and Judaism. This phase of the evening will take place in the social hall. Fran Leavitt is the coordinator and will be the moderator.

Please mark your calendars to remind you of the date—Friday, March 3 at 8:15 P.M.

Plans are underway for our second annual Passover Seder on March 30. Details will be in the mail shortly.

An appeal has come to us from the Grant Avenue Day Care Center for volunteers who can help with the children from 9:30 to 11:30 any day but Friday. Please call Jean Tobey, 755-3555.

New Study Group

In response to a request from our post-confirmants, the Religious School is organizing a study group to examine the approach to faith by six modern Jewish thinkers.

Utilizing the knowledge of Joel Gordon, the course will help shed light on the problems facing all of us. Mr. Gordon is a student at the Theological Seminary who will be ordained this year. The course is limited to 15 Jewish teen-agers beginning with high school juniors in order to maintain the personal contact required.

Those interested should contact the Temple or Lura Kaufman, school committee chairwoman, at 757-5076. The course will start Feb. 17 at 7 P.M. at the Temple and continue on a semi-weekly basis. There will be a $15 fee, regardless of affiliation.

Did You Know?

That in four of the five special scrolls of the Bible, a woman figures in them, directly or indirectly, literally or figuratively:

The Purim Megillah—Esther.

Song of Songs—Shulamith.

The Book of Ruth.

Scroll of Lamentations—Mother Jerusalem in her former despair.

The Sages say that though all Jewish holidays may one day be forgotten, Purim will still remain, because the Jewish enemy will not let us forget.
