Last Fall you subscribed $ to our work. This year, we have reason to fear that our letter did not reach you. We feel sure we would have heard from you had you received it.

Our winter's activities are in full swing. The boys swarm in, the workers are on the job one hundred percent, the plant is worked to capacity.

But - FUNDS ARE NEEDED. It is only with the help of our old and tried friends that we can carry on as we hope to do.

And so we are writing you again of our needs. May we hope for an early reply?

Very sincerely yours,

R. S. Carmichael
