WORKING CREW AT CITY PARKS TO BE REDUCED

Drastic Step To Be Taken Because Of Lack Of Funds

Because the Board of Finance has refused to appropriate additional funds, Commissioner Jack Slater informed the Park Committee yesterday that the working crew now engaged in the maintenance of our city parks will have to be curtailed. He suggested that this be done gradually and that the work week be reduced so that money will be more evenly distributed among the working crew. This policy will have to be continued up until November, at which time additional moneys are expected to be made available for park maintenance.

In normal times about 70 men were employed to maintain the parks. The board has only $4,500 left in its labor account. That amount would not be sufficient to carry the work for two months.

FLOOD CONTROL PLAN APPROVED BY WATER BD.

Plan Sponsored By Chamber Of Commerce Meets With Approval

At a conference held in Trenton yesterday with municipal, county and Pennsylvania railroad engineers, the State Water Policy Commission approved the flood control plan for this area. The plan, long sponsored by the Paterson Chamber of Commerce, was suggested by Commissioner Foster W. Freeman, former judge of this city, and George S. Burgess, chairman.

The project calls for improvements in the Passaic River Valley by establishing encroachment lines along the three mile section of the river from the Dundee dam to the Great Falls. An estimate as to dredging the 3 mile stretch to be made by Howard T. Critchlow, commission engineer. The plan also includes channel improvement of meadows above Little Falls.

Two weeks hence, army engineers will also hold a hearing in this city on possible means of controlling floods. The National Emergency council will also cooperate in this flood control project.

Other suggestions included the building of dams in the upper reaches of the Delaware River as a means of controlling river floods which last March inundated many New Jersey towns.

The fire and police board will now request the finance board to take over the building for whatever use it may deem profitable.

The employees whose departure was reported are Marie G. Donnelly, matron; Michael Dillon, janitor; William J. Conner, fireman; George Friend and Daniel McGill (continued on page 8)

27,000 LOCAL PUPILS RETURNED TO SCHOOL

Some with sad hearts, others un-concerned, and a few with outward happy expressions, the 27,000 pupils of this city returned to school yesterday after a vacation lasting a little over two months.

Thomas F. Kelley, secretary to the Board of Education, reported a few hours after the opening of schools that "everything is going smoothly."

Parochial schools also opened yesterday.

FOREIGN GOODS DAM ASKED PRESIDENT BY REP. SEGER

The increasing flood of foreign imports was protested again this week by Representative George N. Seger, who wrote the President calling attention to letters he had received from the Millinery Manufacturers of New Jersey located in his own district, and the National Dairy Union, a country wide organization, dedicated to the interest of dairy farmers.

A letter was written Seger by Alexander H. Grossman, executive secretary of the Millinery Manufacturers, with offices at 819 Main Avenue, this city.

"As members of your constituency," Grossman said, "The millinery industry is suffering because of heavy importation of cheap hat bodies from foreign countries, especially Japan. Our members are very anxious to have the Federal government re-open the question of raising the import duty so that wool bodies of foreign manufacture will be brought closer in price to those of domestic manufacture. We will be thankful to you to interest in help improve condition in our industry."

A. M. Loomis, Secretary of the National Dairy Union, wrote that the effects of certain pacts negotiated under the New Deal's Reciprocal Tariff Agreement program "will do more damage to the American dairy industry than any attack which it has met since the World War." Loomis urged the New Jersey Congressman to stress the danger in every speech he made in the present campaign where farm dairymen might be present and he added he stood ready to furnish details and reports of continuing imports if desired.

"Tariff protection went out the window when the Congress fell for the Reciprocal Tariff Pact idea and the Senate sought to yield its Constitutional power to confirm treaties," said Congressman Seger. "I admire Secretary Hull in many ways but he is essentially a free-trader," the Congressman continued, "and I am certainly opposed to the Wallace idea that if Americans cannot compete with such and other cheap foreign labor we ought not to engage in that industry but should seek some other line wherein we may excel. The idea, unfortunately, does not take into consideration the un-American conditions in other lands. Take our silk people, for instance. When they came to Washington to protest against any discrimination in a treaty about to be negotiated with France they were told by the State Department to come 'only in the event you are prepared to give.'"

pinched, financially, are using this simple and unique method of "buying their health."

As a matter of fact, the function of the Bureau is to assist such individuals to do that very thing, and each month people who have been putting off needed services by the two professions are using the Bureau in increasing numbers.

Anyone contemplating dental work or an operation may go to the Bureau, 64 Hamilton Street, Paterson, and arrange for monthly payments, without any additional charge. A similar arrangement may be made with respect to old bills.

The Bureau, a non-profit organization, is sponsored and financed by the physicians, dentists, and hospitals of Passaic County to help people help themselves.

Passaic County G.O.P. Outing On Saturday Sept. 19

More enthusiastic than ever is the interest which attends the making of preparations for the annual outing of the Republican party in Passaic County which will be held at Idlewild Park, West Paterson, on Saturday, September 19.

With Passaic County definitely returning to the fold of the GOP as judged by the past few elections, there is every indication that the event this year will be the biggest in the history of the party.

County Clerk Lloyd B. Marsh, party leader, reflects the victory spirit which is now coursing through the ranks of the Republicans. He has called upon followers of the GOP and their friends throughout the entire county to join together on Saturday, September 19, at Idlewild Park, for a grand get together and mobilization of forces preparatory to the election in November.

The sunflower emblem adopted for this year's presidential campaign will be much in evidence at the outing. It will signalize the spirit of the party as it seeks to elect Landon, Knox and the entire ticket.

Congressman George N. Seger, who, with a GOP congress in the offing, looms as one of the outstanding statesmen in the country, will also be present together with all of the other county candidates. Officials from town, county, and state will be present.

Tickets for the outing are now in the hands of the various members of the Republican County Committee which is again sponsoring the event.

Foreign Trade

The Commerce and Marine Commission of the American Bankers Association has made a report which shows that the foreign trade of the world for the year 1933 on the basis of its estimated physical volume was 78.8 per cent of the 1929 level. This was 2.1 per cent above the volume of 1934 and the highest since 1929. The price values of world trade were much lower due to the lower commodity prices in January, 1936. The combined index of 75 countries showed 35.7 per cent of the 1929 average.

National Bank Growth

Comptroller of the Currency C. Connor announced recently that total deposits of the 5,374 national banks in the United States on June 30, 1936, the date of the last call made for statements of condition, aggregated $23,200,452,000. The figure is a new high record for national banks, exceeding by $1,349,998,000, or 5.39%, the amount reported as of March 4, 1936, the previous high record. The current figures show also that deposits increased $3,682,207,000, or 16.35%, over the amount reported as of June 30, 1935, the date of the corresponding call a year ago.

POLITICAL POOP DECK

A rendezvous with those who delve in things political... A bit from here and there on the campaign's progress

WHERE MARTINI STANDS

Judging from the goodly number of friendly Italian-American political camps throughout the county and his short but meteoric career of accomplishments in the city of Passaic, Street Director Nicholas Martini's march to one of the Freeholder seats is destined to become a reality. Not only has Martini been able to win the confidence and support of the Italian-American following in every nook and cranny of the county, but his straight-forward record of achievement as a Passaic commissioner has been ample demonstration of his ability.

You remember the number of round-table discussions which preceded selection of a Freeholder candidate bracket in the Republican party shortly prior to the May primaries. The Republicans had several candidates for the job, but either because of pressure of business or a frank refusal to give the time and energy necessary for such a tough assignment, there remained only a slim few from which to choose.

The nod went to Commissioner Martini and to former Clifton Mayor Crise Kievit. The Cliftonian's mid-county support and his all-county popularity were two strong factors in his favor. This year Clifton deserved one of the choices since county leaders prepared to give the smaller communities one of the spots next year.

Martini has already made for himself a record as one of the busiest commissioners on the Passaic board. As an able attorney, he has represented the city in matters which needed the understanding knowledge of a barrister. His rapid acclimation to the duties and requirements of a productive Street Commissioner was nothing short of sensation. With the manifold complications of the Works Progress Administration projects and the number of opportunities for the city, Martini took the bull by the horns upon a number of occasions to reap benefits for the citizenry of Passaic.

Commissioner Martini's dogged earnestness in purpose landed for this city a number of WPA projects, with little expenditure of city monies, which at first sight appeared lost in the huge shuffle of red tape in Washington. His patience and sincerity have often won him reward. He has had satisfaction in the accomplishment of these projects for the benefit of his fellow citizens.

Thus, there is ample reason for political tongues throughout the county to be wagging in favor of the dapper young Passaic lawyer. Such favorable comment must be deserved. Yes sir, Nick Martini merits every word of it!

THE CAN'T-GO-WRONG CHOICE

When party-ticket shapester County Clerk Lloyd B. Marsh was moulding the figures of his Republican sculpture for presentation to the voting public of this county, he dipped into the friendly and persevering clay of a man who had never before sought office, but who had had direct contact with county politics for many years. This man's family before him made county history.

Charles K. Barton won hands down over opponent John J. Roegner in the Primary. And even though these men have gone through the May wars as opponents for the same distinction—the Republican party choice for the State Senator candidacy on the November ticket—the struggle ended with Roegner holding even fonder admiration of his foe than prior to the opening shot of the primary tussle.

The reason for Barton's success is not a story of a day's emergence in politics. He has spent years rubbing elbows with politicians of every sort and even though he was never before a candidate, everyone had and still has respect for him.

Respect isn't won overnight. Barton has long been a prominent figure in county banking and business circles. He has held offices of splendid title with many organizations. His civic and fraternal life hold accomplishments of several and many types.

Here's one man I can honestly predict will win in November via the route suggested by this column.

Trenton Fair's 50 Cents Worth Is Quite The Most

Trenton.—A study of the program and score of outstanding features listed for the New Jersey State Fair this year, brings up the question as to where in the amusement world can one possibly get more for 50 cents.

There just seems to be everything at the Trenton Fair this year and a trip over the 120 acres over which the exhibition is spread will prove this assertion. In fact, from the time you enter the main gate until your steps turn homeward, on every side, there is something of interest, and George A. Hamid, the new managing director is certain that every one will agree that "Life begins at the New Jersey State Fair."

Travel as one pleases, any day or night from Sunday, September 27 to Saturday, October 3, there will be features galore once the visitors reach the Fair Grounds. Come early and stay over for the night pageant carnival and fireworks.

New ideas, new improvements, new inventions and new forms of entertainment have packed to capacity the 19 mammoth exhibit buildings with the finest produce, livestock, feminine handicraft, culinary art, etc.

That the fair presents greater and more varied entertainment and education than any single exhibition available to the people of the State of New Jersey, is evidenced by the great advance sale of tickets, both the day and night stage musical comedy revue.

While the manifold exhibits in the various departments of the State Fair are worthy of the most inspection, and comprise a liberal education in many subjects, all the way from the stock breeding to home economics, there are thousands of visitors who give them casual attention, and discover almost their only interest in what they can see from the grandstand. They go to the Fair for entertainment, simply.

So, after a strenuous morning viewing the finest livestock and agricultural exhibition, they flock to the grandstand from which may be seen every day and night one of the biggest, most entertaining shows one could wish to look at, especially if you enjoy the sight of show horses being put through their paces over the steeplechase; feel the suspense of a closely contested race, or thrill at a gorgeous spectacle three ring circus.

THE NEW SEMESTER

School starts today for several thousand city youngsters and with it begins resumption of the journey interrupted by a two-month vacation.

Our children are availing themselves of one of America's greatest institutions—the free public school.

Parents have a right to feel relieved at this moment. A two-month stretch has just ended when their responsibilities were greater than at any time during the year. Parents had to take up last June where teachers left off in the training of their children. They were dealing with youngsters who had profited from the teachings that come out of books and the youngsters who were anxious to add the seasoning of experience to this learning.

Now the job reverts to the instructors. We hope that there will be satisfaction in the hearts of our teachers, that their work has not been done in vain, that these children return to their classrooms eager for more knowledge.

Happy school days, kids!

CAMP HOPE

It was indeed a refreshing experience witnessing the meteoric success of Camp Hope, where during the past two months, 822 youngsters found freedom and a chance to play in the sun, that otherwise would have been denied them. Weren't these the fortunate youngsters!

Freeholder Ernest T. Schneidemann, of Clifton, deserves congratulations for the fine thought of utilizing the CCC camp, then being abandoned for this splendid purpose. Government equipment came in handy, and everyone who was asked to co-operate with the project, lent a hand without hesitation. The Freeholders spent a small sum of county funds, army officers gave willingly of their services and time, and the Government appropriation under the WPA helped considerably in this wonderful cause.

It is our sincere hope the camp will be an annual institution.

HOW WILL YOU VOTE?

Men and women should regard voting for public officials an individual privilege. They should be free to exercise that function according to their own ideas for the good of the country, state or nation, without any undue and unfair pressure otherwise.

There need be no hard feelings among members of a family whose political views differ. A business can have members of the firm and employees who differ upon issues or personalities without any disloyalty to the common enterprise.

It is extremely desirable that there be freedom in the exercise of the ballot. Any intimidating efforts used upon voters is undemocratic and hostile to the spirit of our government. Therefore we urge our readers that each vote as he or she pleases.

FINGERPRINTS SHOULD BE ON FILE

Monthly, the Civil Identification Section of the Department of Justice is adding fingerprints to its collection. Not necessarily the fingerprints of criminals arrested, but of Americans who want them filed for purposes of identification whenever it might be helpful. In June over 16,000 such fingerprints were voluntarily sent in the Department and added to those on file.

The reason this is so desirable is because every once in a while a man or woman is found wandering about, victims of amnesia, unable to tell who they are or where they come from. If their fingerprints were on file, they could be identified and their loved ones notified. In this manner they would receive proper care and the suspense of relatives ended as to the whereabouts of the missing family member.

Of times people die amid strangers and far from home. No simpler means of identification is possible for strangers than the fingerprinting method. During one month the Department received the fingerprints of 288 persons who had died and who were unknown, but with even the limited file in its possession the Department was able to identify 72 of these positively and 53 tentatively, which were confirmed.

Every peaceful citizen should have his fingerprint registered if he has the opportunity. We are sure local police officials will co-operate with those desiring the assistance. Criminals will object or those who are afraid they may become involved in crime because fingerprints on file might help solve a crime mystery, too. Most Americans, however, could file their fingerprints without any danger, and, on the contrary, with some chance that it might prove very valuable some time in life.

We urge residents of this community to go to their police department Identification Bureau today and ask the officer in charge for assistance in this matter.

COLLEGE LIFE ALMOST CENTURY AGO

Occasionally we read of modern college student's pranks and wonder what the next generation is coming to. These fears are groundless, for the most part. In this connection, let us call your attention to some Princeton University activities in 1850.

Torpedoes were thrown during lectures, one letter of the times reports. Students stamped on the floor when they disliked professors, fastened the college bell to prevent ending periods, and also removed the horse of one professor from his stable to the third floor of his residence.

College students of today do some of these things in much the same way, but there are numerous evidences that college life today is pitched upon a higher plane than ever before in the past. Of course, many foolish people go to college, and waste their time, but the number gets fewer and fewer every year.

Paterson State Normal School

Reports Largest Enrollment In Years

With the introduction of general college courses at the Paterson State Normal School, the number of students to begin classes next Wednesday will be larger than in any entering class in recent years. Many former students at the Passaic County Junior College and other junior colleges in this area have been granted advanced standing and have registered for a second year of work.

According to Kenneth B. White, Secretary of the Normal School, the appeal of the new general college courses and the opportunity for today students to obtain part time employment under the Federal College Aid program are the chief reasons for the increase in enrollment.

The college courses in Liberal Arts, Business Administration and Engineering are accredited by the N. J. Department of Public Instruction. They will be given in both the day and evening sessions. Tuition (continued on page 5)

From the News

"There will be some kind of violence if America persists in its present socially unscientific trend. I think there will be a swaying back and forth. There will be a tightening up and then there will be a swing to something like Fascism. Some ideas of the Roosevelt administration are good, but they are carried out by old-fashioned means."—Dr. John Dewey, Columbia University professor and philosopher.

"Nothing has been done to restrain Father Coughlin from his radio broadcasts. The statements in the Observatore Romano do not reflect the opinion of the Vatican; they are the reflection of the opinion of that paper. The question of Father Coughlin was mentioned neither officially nor unofficially in my talks with the Holy Father."—Bishop Michael J. Gallagher of Detroit.

"We always, in the course of a few hours and after a simple order can mobilize 8,000,000 men. It is a formidable bloc that fourteen years of Fascist regimes have prepared at white heat with great sacrifices. The Italian people should know that their peace at home and abroad will be protected and, with it, the peace of the world."—Benito Mussolini.

"Italy has the same ideas as Germany. Both countries strive for peace which is a gift which can be offered only by might and which only might can protect."—Nazi Propaganda Chief Paul Goebbels.

"What do you want me to say—that I'm going to marry Mrs. G. T. Brokaw? Of course, I am. When—as soon as I can."—Henry Fonda movie star.

"Some of the boys were irked about the officials traveling first class and the athletes going second class, but there was no discrimination because the athletes had free run of the boat except at night. There are bound to be certain criticisms on a trip like this, but some of the people who criticize couldn't do any better themselves."—Glenn Cunningham, mile runner for the U. S. in the Olympics.

"My rather lengthy experience has taught me that members of Congress are financially honest, though sometimes demagogical and politically cowardly. The latter, instead of measuring questions presented by the yardstick of principle, gauge them by the number of people in their respective States or districts who will support them in any vote they make. I never knew of one single individual who would sell himself for cash."—Senator James Watson in "As I Knew Them."

"The situation abroad looks very grave on the surface. But nobody wants war now. All countries are moving very cautiously to avoid letting the Spanish civil war set fire to all Europe. Despite Germany's rapid rearmament and the rejuvenation of her armed forces, there is, I believe, no present intention to start any aggression. Perhaps, however, the scene will change within a year or a year and a half."—Friedrich C. Uechter, chief of Berlin Bureau of the United Press.

The last to speak was the guest himself who in part said:

"The campaign this year is getting off to a red hot start. Although this gathering here tonight may be in my behalf, I feel that you present here tonight are here because you believe that the entire Democratic ticket should be elected."

"To thank the committee for the fine work in making this rally so successful cannot be said in words. My feelings for Albert Barr, chairman of the committee, and his assistants will be long remembered by me and will have a tender spot in my heart. It is the usual thing to compliment those who are responsible for affairs, such as this. My words are limited; my feelings I cannot express."

"It is very warm tonight, we will have other gatherings when the weather is more favorable. My message to you tonight is to work for the Democratic party. Every candidate on our ticket rightfully deserves the support of the electorate of Passaic county. The Democratic party stands on its record, espousing the cause of good government and a service to the people which is rightfully coming to them. My friends, I ask you to go out and vote for the entire Democratic ticket."

IN THE MILL

What ho, my Giant hardies, the old Terry-led ballplayers are at last in a comfortable position.... At least so until that ugly double header with the Cards Sunday, which should mean a good deal either way.... Incidentally you fans who hear the daily baseball broadcasts may as well know now that an effort is being made to abolish the practice in the major leagues.... Don't be entirely surprised if Commissioner Landis issues the ban at the winter meeting of the leagues.... You know the answer and the query, broadcasts have cut into attendances too deeply for the good of the financial guts of the leagues.... Merely following in the footsteps of other great heavyweight greats, our mutual friend Jess Willard plans opening a saloon in Pittsburgh in the very near future. In Soldier's Field, where 115,000 have been known to witness football games, only 23,000 of those seats are between the end zones.

The crowds are so meager at Third Ward Park for ball games, the season will probably have to make a hurried exit as far as teams go that play there.... I've been told that Monsieur Pickett has already selected his Passaic High School football team and that uniforms have been dispatched to the ones he thinks he'll need for the season.... Well change the recruit has of making the club if he answers first squad call by Pickett.... The kid will either have to be a cousin of the janitor at the Lafayette Avenue institution, or else perform like Joe Maniaci first crack out of the box.... Wonder what's become of the football enthusiasm of Custer Wasilewski, brother of Walt, who recently signed a contract with the Wessie Reds, and who asked released from the signature because of an eye injury.

The Giants call Freddy Fitzsimmons "The Champ" because of his snoring ability.... The usher at the press box at Wrigley Field has a great baseball name, Walter Johnson.... Charlie Purvis, no relation to Jim or Duane will play football with Purdue this year and that'll be keeping the Purvis name in the football lineup out there for another year.

Our new champion, Lou Ambers, has lost only two fights in his career to Tony Canzone and Steve Halaiko.... And he has avenged both these defeats.... A merino Barno, former Fordham football team center, boasts that the punt he blocked on Dixie Howell in the Alabama game in 1933 was the only punt blocked on Howell in his entire career.... And incidentally, the punt led to the Ram victory, 26.... Chuck Woods, Detroit lightweight, has fought for 9 years and hasn't taken a vacation since from the 250 fights in his career.... Kurtis Venturi and Almo Spoldt, two young Italian kids, are setting the pace for the lightweight fashion models.... A new heavyweight

Wessie Reds Prepare For Opener With Giants At The Stadium Tuesday Night

Hard drills will be resumed for the balance of the week by members of the Wessington Red Devils in preparation for their opening tilt with the New York Giants at the Passaic Stadium Tuesday night.

Proceeds of the opener will go to the Mike Crippled Kiddies Fund, it was announced by Manager Joe Rosentover of the Red Devils.

Mike Sebastian, one of PHL's ex-football luminaries, signed a Red Devil contract and engaged in the first strenuous workout with the home towners the other night at the Stadium.

Sebastian was with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National League last year. In an exhibition game against the Reds he teamed with an ex-Pitt mate, Izzy Weinstein, to run wild, giving a spectacular show of passing and touch down sprinting.

The Wessie Reds got a left handed flipper in Sebastian, who is bound to improve the local all-around passing attack. Sam Maslaci, Joe Demjanovic and Nick Pleso all can throw and passed and if Walt Wasilewski gets into a Red uniform the club will have an excellent aerial threat. Wasilewski complained of an eye ailment the latter part of the week and was not certain whether or not he would be able to play this year.

The pros will go through a few more drills this week under the tutelage of Coach Frank Kirkleski.

Yale Sells Grid Radio Privilege

Yale University's action in selling the radio rights to its home games for 1934, cracked open along a new channel the decision of commercialization of college football this week.

Yale's agreement to put its six New Haven games on the air under commercial sponsorship was discussed from the angle on whether or not it would provide an entering wedge for similar action by other traditionally conservative Eastern schools.

An official of WOR announced the contract giving the Atlantic Refining Co. exclusive rights to put Yale's home games on the air and named the Newark station and a New England network as the outlets. Reliable reports said the oil company paid $30,000 for the broadcast privileges.

William J. Hingham, Harvard athletic chief returned from the American Olympic games, said he didn't think broadcasting is inconsistent with dignified practices. Jack Coffey, Fordham graduate manager of athletics, declared his college has been considering broadcast offers.

Good Lighting For Grid Game

Assurance that the lighting for the night football game at the Hinchliffe Stadium tonight when the Paterson Panthers will inaugurate their 1934 gridiron campaign against the New York Black Hawks will be the very best, came in the form of a statement from Charles D. Phillips, chairman of the football committee of the Italian National Circle, Tuesday evening.

In the meantime, the Panther players are rounding into peak form for tonight's game with the colored team and for the more important tilt Sunday against the Brooklyn Dodgers when the Panthers officially open their playing season at the Hinchliffe stadium.

TOOK OFF 17 LBS. OF UGLY FAT

HEEDED DOCTOR'S ADVICE

Mrs. Robert Hickey, Rossville, Calif., writes: "My doctor prescribed Kruschen-Salts for me—he said they wouldn't hurt me in the least. I've lost 17 lbs. in 4 weeks. Kruschen is worth its weight in gold."

Mrs. Hickey paid no attention to gossipers who said there was no safe way to reduce. She wisely followed her doctor's advice. Why don't YOU?

Get a jar of Kruschen to-day (taste 4 weeks and costs but a trifle). Simply take half teaspoonful in cup of hot water every morning. All druggists.

Mile Run Between Halves Of Tiger's Grid Game Oct. 3

Between halves of the Princeton-Williams football game on October 3, there will be a track football exhibition to include special running of the Princeton invitation mile.

Signed entries have been received from Jack Lovelock, Glenn Cunningham, Archie San Romani and Don Leah. A fifth entrant will probably be added to the starting list later.

Ann Bushnell, Princeton University graduate manager of athletics, said Williams College athletic officials were cooperating in planning the special event.

Bushnell said the mile run would be held at this time because studies would force Lovelock to give up active running at the end of this season, and "it seems only fitting that he should return once more to the Palmer Stadium track, the scene of the first of his many great victories."

Jean Eaton Ends Life Of Daring

Parachute Jumper Embarks On New Venture Supervising Specialty Dining Nook

Miss Jean Eaton, for the past few years a daring parachute jumper in the Middle West, this week made a phenomenal landing in Paterson, put away her harnessed parachutalia, and will enter a new line of endeavor this Saturday evening, when she opens her new dining nook at the Roosevelt Hotel on Clark Street, Paterson.

When Miss Eaton made her last jump and floated through the air she landed in Paterson and stopped at the Roosevelt Hotel and after a good rest asked the proprietor, Joseph Karkus if she might have a meal served her. Learning it was not to be had on the premises, it gave Miss Eaton a thought and persistency on her part made it a reality.

Having traveled extensively in the South, Miss Eaton knows good food. She will make a specialty of fried chicken, (Southern style) as well as delicious sandwiches and homemade pies and cakes.

In addition to providing good service, and serving good food, Miss Eaton wishes to convey to the public of Paterson and its environs that a beautiful cocktail bar ushers the dining nook where patrons may personally meet famed aviators, auto racers and motorcycle drivers this Saturday night.

Born in Colorado, Miss Eaton was educated at Mt. Marie Academy, Canton, Ohio, graduating from that institution in 1918.

In 1928 while at Lakeside Amusement Park, in Denver, Colorado, she made her first parachute jump from the gasbag used in yesterday. She was so thrilled by the experience that she made it her career for the past 16 years, totaling nearly 300 jumps in all.

Outstanding Herds To Be Shown At Trenton Fair

Early indications are that there will be a very good livestock show at the New Jersey State Fair this year, which will be held in Trenton from September 27 to October 3, officials of the fair said today.

Ayrshire cattle have been returned to the show and already there is promise of one of the outstanding herds in the United States from Syracuse Farms, Douglassville, Pa. This herd, which is owned by Mrs. E. R. Fritchie, has won premier awards in both United States and Canada.

TO HONOR LOMAURO

Geraci League Head Recently Passed Bar Exam—Affair, Oct. 11

Preliminary plans have been made by members of the Geraci Citizens League, of Passaic, for a testimonial dinner in honor of Rosario Lomauro, their president who recently passed the bar examinations. The affair will be held Sunday evening, October 11 at the Colonial Inn, Ringwood.

"I'm a little bit disgusted with the way things went, but I won't say just what I mean. There was a lot of bickering, but if an athlete tried to make a complaint he couldn't get to first base with the officials because of the defense they put up with back passing."—James Owens, Negro Olympics champion.

BANKERS WILL MEET IN ANNUAL COUNCIL

Business Men Also Invited to Present Their Views on Services of Banks to the Public

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Robert V. Fleming, President American Bankers Association, has announced that the organization's annual convention will be held at San Francisco September 21-24 and its program will "all in not only bankers but speakers from various lines of business, to present their viewpoints and advice."

The plan for the convention discussions take into consideration the fact, he says, that one of the major problems in banking today is to develop its operations along lines that will create greater public understanding of its methods and services.

"It is my earnest conviction that such public understanding of banking is not only an essential defense against attacks from whatever source but is also requisite to re-establishing upon a firm and satisfactory basis of profitable operations," Mr. Fleming said.

General Improvement Cited

"The improvement in general conditions which is now taking place should be a material aid to bankers in carrying forward a constructive program for increasingly useful relationships between banking and business, as well as one of more helpful personal business services to all our people. Sound banking conducted in ways the public need and understand must be the aim of successful bank management."

"How can the banker make his operations and policies more understandable to the people of his community? How can better and broader financial services be soundly provided? How can banking improve its operating methods and income? These and many similar questions demand the earnest attention of all bankers. They call for a fresh counselling together and a new interchange of experience and advice among the members of our profession."

"With these thoughts in mind, we have built the convention program with the view of air calling into our councils speakers from various lines of business to give us their viewpoints and advice. I can say without reservation that this is to my mind one of the most crucial years in the evolution of American banking, and that we are passing through a period demanding as never before, cooperation and mutual exchange of viewpoint among our members and others."

Radio Commencement Exercises

More than 200 widely separated chapters of the American Institute of Banking, the educational section of the American Bankers Association held annually in September a simultaneous commencement exercise at which they listen to the speaker of the evening by radio. This is said to be the most extensive graduation ceremony held in any educational institution. The aggregate membership of the chapters, which are located in cities and towns throughout the United States, totals about 35,000 bank employees and officers. The graduates number each year more than 2,500, and total graduates are now over 25,000.

The Business Outlook

NEW YORK.—The natural forces of recovery have demonstrated their strength and have a momentum which may reasonably be expected to carry the country into new high ground, says "Banking," the publication of the American Bankers Association, in its August issue. The monetary stimulation following the distribution of bonus funds to the veterans has practically died away and is no longer an important business factor.

Not the Same Old Picnic Lunch!

Courtesy Sealtest Laboratory Kitchen

By BEULAH V. GILLASPIE
Director, Sealtest Laboratory Kitchen

SURE, you've lots of ideas on where to picnic, but don't you get "stumped" sometimes on the question of WHAT TO EAT? I do! And I find that a dash of novelty in the picnic menu goes a long way toward making the day successful. For instance—everyone loves the good, dependable potato salad. But watch 'em vote doubly hard for this sour cream potato salad—so spicy, tangy and hunger-filling!

Sour Cream Potato Salad

- 4 medium sized cold boiled potatoes
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons grated onion
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1 cup sour cream
- Salt
- Paprika
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimento
- 1/4 cup chopped dill pickle
- 1/4 cup chopped crisp bacon
- Lettuce

Peel the potatoes and cut in small cubes. Combine the vinegar, lemon juice, grated onion, parsley and sour cream. Season with salt to taste and a dash of paprika. Add the chopped pimento, dill pickle and bacon to the potatoes. Toss together with the sour cream mixture and chill before serving or packing for picnic lunch. Serves 6 to 8.

Cottage Cheese Sandwiches

- 2 tablespoons chopped tomato
 - Few grains salt
 - 1 cup cottage cheese
 - 2 tablespoons chopped crisp bacon
 - 1 teaspoon grated onion.
 - Butter
 - Sliced whole wheat bread
- Sprinkle the chopped tomato lightly with the salt. Combine tomato, cottage cheese, bacon and onion. (If desired the cheese filling may be packed in a jar and the sandwiches made at the picnic). Spread between slices of buttered whole wheat bread.

Sheffield Head Explains Raise

LeRoy A. Van Bommel, president of the Sheffield Farms Co., issued a statement amplifying an earlier statement announcing an advance of one cent in the price of quart bottles of milk, both Grade A and B and buttermilk.

"An apparent discrepancy between our advanced price to producers of 42 cents a hundred lbs. and the price rise to consumers of one cent, arising from the fact that there are 47 quarts in a hundred pounds of milk, deserves an explanation," Mr. Van Bommel said. "Pints and half pints of milk," he said, "remain at the same price and they represent an important part of the Sheffield trade."

"This five cent differential is entirely inadequate to cover the increased costs. It does not take into account an increase of 22 per cent in the wages and taxes paid by Sheffield Farms while the price of milk was unchanged, nor the tremendous increase in the cost of feeding over 3,000 horses, which, alone, will use more than the differential."

Majestic To Open With Vaudeville Friday Afternoon

The Majestic theatre is a bre-hive of activity these days, and one can readily understand when the announcement is made that the popular Main Street amuse-ment temple will resume its poli-cy of presenting vaudeville, start-ing tomorrow.

Painters have been working fe-verishly during the past week wrap-ping the place into shape and when the first show is presented on the aforementioned day it is expected that the "R.R.O." sign will be very much in evidence.

The theatre, as in former years, will be 100 per cent union and will be independently operated—being managed by A. Louis Ginsburg and Jack Ginsburg. Each complete show will be at least three hours in length and the admission prices will be the same as last season.

New stage and screen attractions will be presented on Tuesdays and Fridays. Although no definite date has been set as yet, amateur con-ests which last season caused the management to place the "and out" sign outside on many an oc-casion, will be staged. A new fea-ure entitled "Employment Night" will begin on Monday evening, September 14 and indications are that it will prove even more in-teresting than the amateur contests.

This season the management has been fortunate in securing the ser-vices of George A. Godfrey, of New York, to book their stage attrac-tions. Mr. Godfrey, it will be re-membered, was formerly the ge-neral booking manager for the giant R. K. O. circuit.

The first stage attraction of the new season will be Colonel Pedro Mayholm and his big musical com-edy unit, "Riky High Revue." The banner attraction has a cast of 35 artists and it is considered among the best on the American vaude-ville stage.

"ANTHONY ADVERSE" NOW SHOWING AT THE FABIAN

"Anthony Adverse" the biggest sensation of the silver screen, o-pens here tomorrow at the Fabian, with Frederick March triumphing in Warner Bros. production of Harvey Allen's famous novel.

Warner's have again accomplish-ed the apparently impossible. It has a tremendous cast, with 98 speaking parts and 2,500 bit players and extras. But all this, while full of color, is but the background for a drama of human life, its lo-ves and hates, its hopes and its disappointments, its desires and its passions; its vain and futile strummings and its vast achieve-ments.

Frederic March rises to great heights of dramatic fire as in the title role of Anthony. His Anthony is a living breathing person, step-ping out of a book into life on the screen. He is ably supported by pretty Olivia de Havilland who clicked in "Midsummer Night's Dream" and "Captain Blood". This is her first great emotional role and she rises to it with true ar-distry.

Other loves of Anthony are found in the characterizations por-trayed by Steffi Duna, a fiery half cast with whom he lives in his African slave mart, and Gale Bon-dergard, a voluptuous and pas-sionate housekeeper. Both give un-usually fine interpretations.

Edmund Gwenn, famous English actor, gives a wonderful portrayal of John Bonnyfeather, grandfather of Anthony who sells his daughter into a loveless match for the price of a title. Anita Louise is beautiful as the daughter, who, married to a Spanish grandee, refuses to give up her handsome Irish army officer.

A cartoon and the news items, conclude the program.

"GENERAL DIED AT DAWN" WITH COOPER AT U. S.

A gripping drama of intrigue, romance and adventure, "The General Died At Dawn", which begins tomorrow at the U. S. Theater, brings Garry Cooper to the screen in another colorful soldier of for-tune role.

With modern China as its back-ground, the plot of "The General Died at Dawn" revolves around the awakening of China to the oppres-sions of her predatory war-lords and the beginnings of a spirit of resistance. Cooper, as the cham-pion of the down-trodden, is in the ranks of the new movement. Play-ing opposite him is beautiful Ma-deleine Carroll in the role of the lure held out by a war-lord to lead Cooper to destruction.

"The General Died At Dawn" is the thrilling story of a love that blooms between a man to whom danger is life and the girl who was paid to get him out of the way. Having trapped him she soon finds herself in the same web. Remorse causes her to offer her life for the freedom of the man she loves, in a thrilling climax the pair snatch happiness and love from the very jaws of death and save the cause to which the man had dedicated his life.
