HERE WE ARE ON THE way to a General Election and instead of a battle raging between the two major parties, the only rivalry that seems to be going on is that within the Democratic party of Paterson . . . perhaps rivalry is too strong a word to suit the situation . . . as a matter of fact, it is more a sullen and strained atmosphere of inaction that characterizes the condition of that party.

BUT THOSE WHO KNOW will tell you that such a thing need not be for the simple reason that a reconciliation can be effected between the Gavinites and the Duffyites . . . all that is required is a direct approach to the situation accompanied by a sincere purpose and a simple set of guarantees.

THE APPROACHING CON-ference between James J. Gavin and the many influential Democratic leaders who supported him in the recently concluded Primary election is of especial significance . . . scheduled to convene shortly, the group will probably take a course of action that may be decisive as far as the current contest for the office of Mayor of Paterson is concerned.

RELIABLE SOURCES, AND they are exactly that, are of the belief that a reconciliation between Gavin and Duffy is not at all improbable . . . it is reported that only one consideration stands between a harmonious understanding between the two Democratic leaders . . . and that has to do with the rank-and-file of the opposition group.

IT IS SAID THAT GAVIN would decide his status definitely and at once, if he were given the bona-fide assurance of the Duffy group that his followers would not be made the victims of reprisals for their sentiments in the primary campaign . . . that, we are told, is the primary consideration in the current hesitancy of the Public Works Commissioner to declare himself in the present campaign.

IF THAT IS THE ONLY point of contention in the present situation, it seems to us that it would be the better part of wisdom for all factions to bury the hatchet and effect a sincere and lasting reconciliation . . . we fail to see what can be gained from a continuance of the strained relationship which characterizes the Democratic party at this time . . . it not only shows a lack of common sense, but is definitely in the category of third-rate political strategy.

DEMOCRATS MIGHT TAKE a leaf from the books of their rivals, the Republicans, who, despite the most vigorous fallings-out, always manage to get together before an election is

Delay Seen As Death-Knell To Hopes Of Reconciliation Between Gavin And Duffy

Neither Side Moves To Break Deadlock; Democratic Mayoralty Hopes Low

The failure of opposing factions within the Democratic party of Paterson to patch up their primary election differences led today to the report that the rift between the Gavin and Duffy groups was rapidly approaching a point where there could be no compromise in time to do the party any good in the general election.

It was reported that no overtures worthy of the name had yet been made by either group—a condition which augured well for a Republican victory in the Mayoralty contest which will be decided early in November.

Sitting Tight

Both leaders were reported to be sitting tight today, waiting for the other to make a move. Whether they would do so was problematical, although the forthcoming meeting of Public Works Commissioner James J. Gavin and his leaders served as an instance in which the current stalemate might be broken.

Impartial observers were of the opinion that a slight chance still remained for County Chairman Edward J. O'Byrne to use his office as an entering wedge between the rival factions. That he must act, and act at once, if Duffy's candidacy in the mayoralty election is to be a successful one was evident.

Want Assurance

Out of all the secrecy that shrouded the respective attitudes of the rival leaders, only one fact stood out today. And that was that before even preliminary negotiations could be begun, supporters of Public Works Commissioner James J. Gavin would have to be given the sincere assurance of those in Power that no retaliatory methods would be invoked against them.

Commissioner Gavin was reported to be determined on this score, and appearances were, that since he held the whip hand as far as the balance of power between the rival candidates, Furrey and Duffy, was concerned, if there is to be a reconciliation between warring Democrats, it would have to be effected with the "no reprisal" principle as its basis.

Dr. McBride Begins Duties As Savings Institution Head

Succeeds Robert J. Nelden In That Post; Praises His Predecessor

Dr. Andrew F. McBride, former mayor of Paterson and long a civic leader, this week began his duties as president of the Paterson Savings Institution, succeeding Robert J. Nelden, dean of Passaic County bankers, in that post.

His associates in the Paterson Savings Institution said farewell to Mr. Nelden at a reception held last Saturday, marking the close of more than 30 years of service with that bank.

Nelden's successor paid glowing tribute to his record.

"We are proud that during the 30 years of your leadership, the bank has had its greatest increase in resources," Dr. McBride declared. "Despite the fact that during the same period there have been several major economic catastrophes throughout the country."

"I express for the employees of the Paterson Savings Institution the deep regret that your resignation as president has caused us all. Our association with you through the years has indeed been a happy one," Dr. McBride told Nelden.

Foes Call Hoffman Attack "Bugling Of Infuriated Elephant"

Hendrickson - Hoffman Debate Seen As Contest For Gubernatorial Nomination

A major dislocation in the ranks of the New Jersey Republican party appeared today after former Governor Harold G. Hoffman had again voiced vigorous criticism of the leadership of Senate President Robert C. Hendrickson of Gloucester.

Hoffman's criticism was based on the same point which was his target in previous utterances—the party platform. He called it a "sickening mass of platitudes" filled with "promises that are impossible to fulfill."

Hendrickson Mum

Hendrickson's only comment was that he had not yet decided "whether to dignify the attack with a formal reply."

He and Hoffman are considered to be rivals for the gubernatorial nomination of the Republican party next year, and the feud is seen as a preliminary battle for public attention.

"Broken Promises"

"With the scientific knowledge gained as the result of your work on state tax revision and unemployment relief conditions," part of Hoffman's criticism of Hendrickson read, "how can you sponsor a platform that deliberately misrepresents the desperate financial condition of the state and its municipalities and attempts to secure votes by a repetition of the already broken promises that there shall be no new taxes and no further bond issues?"

Hendrickson declared that the only part of the state Republican platform in which he had a hand was the "Americanism" provision.

"Disappointed Elephant"

The only member of the platform committee to reply to Hoffman's attack was State Senator Alfred E. Driscoll of Camden.

"Hoffman's statement," he declared, "is the wild bugling of a disappointed elephant."

RECONCILIATION—WHEN WILL IT COME?

Less than a month remains before the General election will be held, and to date, there has been no sign of any prospective reconciliation between the various warring factions within the Democratic party.

Out of a primary campaign such as was recently concluded here, it is natural that there should still be a strained feeling between the rival groups—but it is inconceivable that matters have reached such a point that the damage cannot be repaired.

The primary requisite for every successful politician is the ability to patch up his differences after a division of opinion has occurred. The man who cannot forget his previous quarrels with others and who fails to effect a reconciliation with his erstwhile opponents isn't likely to go far in the game of politics—or in any game, for that matter.

It seems to us that one man who is in a position to re-unite the Democratic party in Paterson is the newly elected County Chairman, Edward J. O'Byrne. Not only is he in an excellent position to do so, but it is his duty to see to it that the party is at the height of its effectiveness on the eve of a General Election.

If matters are allowed to progress as they are, not only the candidates on the county ticket will suffer, but the rank and file of the party will be left holding the proverbial bag.

Delay in a situation such as this will surely lead to a condition that will be beyond repair in time for the crucial test that lies ahead in November.

Intelligent and constructive leadership is the prime requisite—and it should be a leadership that will weld the party together BEFORE, and not after the election is a matter of record.

CONGRATULATIONS TO "THE CALL"

This newspaper extends its congratulations to The Morning Call on the occasion of its receipt of an award for general excellence from the New Jersey Press Association.

That it is an award that carries the weight of authority and experience is evident from the distinguished board of journalistic authorities who made up the board of judges. To The Morning Call we again say: "congratulations" and "well done."

PRICES AND THE WAR

One immediate result of the outbreak of war in Europe has been a sharp and sudden rise in the wholesale prices of many basic commodities. After current stocks in the hands of retailers are exhausted, the increased cost must be felt by the consumer.

It is the government's hope to prevent price-profiteering. But, as any economist can tell you, prices must inevitably rise substantially in many fields, even though profiteering is eliminated. This is perfectly natural, on the basis of supply and demand. Nations at war present an almost insatiable appetite for a long list of commodities—grains, dairy products, metals, etc. When consumption takes a great and immediate jump, the sources of supply are strained and price rises follow.

The current situation makes it all the more important to prevent artificial and avoidable increases in prices, both wholesale and retail. As a specific case in point, those various existing "anti-consumer" laws which encourage price-fixing, discourage honest competition, and attempt to hamper the efficient distributor in order to aid the inefficient, may be cited. To an extent never before true, laws of this character menace the millions of hard-pressed American families, to whom making both ends meet is a difficult problem.

In other words, let real, unhampered competition do all it can to hold prices to fair and natural levels, for the benefit of the consumer.

October 2, 1939

To the editor:

The saddest words of mice and men or what-have-you are "it might have been."

And it seems to me that your columnist, Milo, seems to deal always with what might have been instead of what is, as is witnessed by his column on how Bob Neilley might have been the Democratic leader, if—

The fact remains that O'Byrne and not Neilley is the leader and it doesn't matter a particle whether Neilley could have had the leadership or not. So, Milo, let's have less of that "if" business.

POINT WELL TAKEN

September 30, 1939

To the editor:

I think your attitude on the flight of industry from large cities to avoid payment of taxes is well-taken. The United Shoe Machinery company's decision to transfer its plant to Flemington is truly an instance where a company consistently avoids paying its rightful share of the cost of government.

He who earns the most should pay the most—that is the principle of taxation, and by forcing concessions out of municipalities, a firm deliberately dodges paying its rightful share.

At any rate, while I am in disagreement with several of the present administration's policies, I agree with you that it was not the fault of the city that the United Shoe company fled from the city limits. No community the size of Paterson can compete with Flemington in the matter of tax concessions and still remain solvent.

As We Like It

...by MILO

If what we hear is the straight goods, the Democratic leadership is going to atone for its blunder of over-looking Italian-American representatives by selecting two of its group for appointments . . . whether the perpetual slight to that group, the most powerful single element in the county, can be wiped out, is something for conjecture . . . looks like a case of locking the stable after the horse has been stolen.

HO-HUM! Now it's State Senator Walter H. Gardner who is being panned for asking too much for his legal services.

You can look for John "Johnson" Pisano, sergeant-at-arms of the Democratic county committee, to fill the internal revenue position that recently belonged to Carl Lembo, leader of one of the Third Ward Democratic factions . . . Pisano, too, is from the Third Ward.

Tom Vigorito's campaign for county clerk on the Democratic ticket is getting a lot of impetus lately . . . with the formation of honest-to-goodness clubs in his behalf in various sections of the county . . . his supporters are really going to town, especially in the Second and Third wards of the city.

Down river, Freeholder Nick Martini is working hand-in-glove with the Democratic factions in Passaic . . . practically every appointment he has made in his department of public works in Passaic has gone to a worker from the rival party.

Quite a few changes have taken place in the personnel of the WPA staff in this county with promotions going to a handful of boys who were supposed to be politically dead . . . on the investigators' staff, among others, is former Commissioner and Freeholder Zabriskie A. Van Houten of Passaic.

IDLE THOUGHT between innings of the World Series—wonder what became of Abe (Hawshaw) Berliner's intention of filing as a candidate in the General Election? . . . about all the filing the Narcotics Sleuth seems to be doing is on his finger nails.

See Increase As Stabilizing Factor Here

Direct Cause Of Higher Prices Is Said To Be Higher Cost Of Chemicals

Paterson dye plants, following the lead of the industry in other parts of the country, this week served notice of advances in prices on many of the fabrics produced in their mills.

By their action, another indication of the effect of the war in Europe was made evident, and prospects were that prices might rise even higher should employers be forced to bow to the demand of labor for increased wages to meet heavier living costs.

One-Half Cent Rise

Price increases announced this week amounted to one-half cent per yard on many fabrics. The direct reason for the increase, dyers said, was the advance of the cost of chemicals necessary in processing.

Operators, however, were quick to point out that the price increase was justified on the grounds that previous prices were too low. It is hoped that the present rates will remain as a basis for conserving a firmness of prices in the dyeing industry.

No Concerted Action

First to be informed of the increase were the salesmen in New York converting markets. They were told that competition had made prices too low for successful operation and that the increase would do much to aid in stabilizing operations.

As far as could be learned, the increase, although general, was not a concerted one, brought about after planned meetings and agreements. Dyers insisted that each plant acted individually and on its own initiative.

Panthers Invade Union City For Night Game Sunday

Side Glances

—by "YANK"

You've got to take your hat off to the Dovers, Paterson's new representative in the American Soccer League, which is to soccer what the major leagues are to baseball. Playing for the first time in the big-time, the local outfit has done all right for itself, ringing up one victory and tying in its other two contests. Rain washed out their game with the Irish-Americans last Sunday.

It wasn't so long ago that a major league entry in Paterson would have jammed any park to the hilt when the locals played. Soccer was the big sport here and how the Irish-Scottish element in Paterson went for it.

What has become of the old Irish-Scottish stalwarts is a mystery to this column. Probably the same thing that happened to the Irish at Notre Dame. Anyway, the lineup of the Dovers is studded with Polish, Italian and Slavish names—something that was unthinkable in the days of the Mc's and the Macs.

But the boys play a good brand of soccer anyway, despite the lack of traditional names. They get another test Sunday when they play the Philadelphia Germans in the city of Brotherly Love and pop-bottles.

Well, on the basis of their showing last week, it looks like Central and Eastside aren't in too bad shape at all for the heavier going that is sure to come. The way Central went to town against Clifton indicates that it will be only over the Colts' dead bodies that another rival will march to the county scholastic league title.

But the big surprise was pulled by Eastside, which was figured to bow to a heavier and more experienced Woodbridge eleven. From reports we've read, the Ghosts did themselves proud in all departments of the game, and if it wasn't for a disastrous fumble, would have had a victory instead of a tie.

We called the Central and Hawthorne games on the nose, but had to be content with a tie on the Eastside tilt. Yet, who would have predicted a lathering such as Hawthorne took last week at the hands of Dumont?

There must be something wrong with the Bears. A 44 to 0 trouncing would be expected from a club in a stronger class but Dumont is on the same level with Hawthorne, and while its victory was deserved, the size of the score might be attributed more to the Bears' fatality rather than to their opponents' strength.

INVASION

Central To Meet Windber, Pa., 11 On October 8

Announcement was made today that Central high school will meet the Windber, Pa. high school eleven in a football game which will be played at Windber on October 28.

The game will be the first intersectional football contest ever undertaken by the Colts.

Local Eyes On Clash Between Passaic, Clifton

Passaic County football fans will get a peek at the new edition of Passaic high school's Indians when they open their football season against Clifton high school at Passaic Saturday afternoon.

The contest not only is of local interest because it is a Passaic County Scholastic league game, but because it will give local fans a line on the Indians' strength.

Passaic is the team that is tabbed to give Central the most competition for the County League title, and is reported to have an unusually strong club. The Colts trounced Clifton, 18 to 0 last week and fans are eager to see what the Indians can do to the same rivals.

Hygrades, GOP In Night Contest

The Hygrades and the Passaic County Republicans will meet in a regular Paterson Suburban League football game under the lights at Hinchliffe Stadium Sunday night.

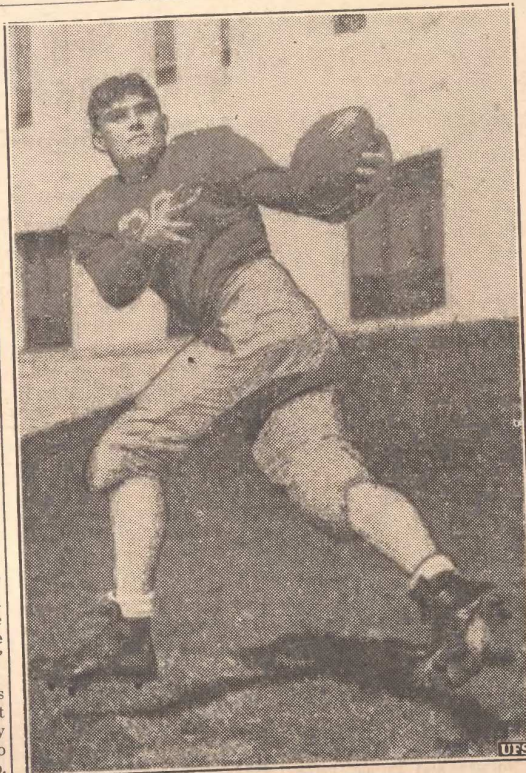

The Republicans, whose lineup consists of many former Central high school players, already have two victories under their belts, their latest having been a 2 to 0 conquest of the Pompton Alumni. They are led by such former scholastic stars as Gabe Mosca, Dick Wuensch, Tony Luizzi and Dan Dowd.

For the Hygrades, Sunday's contest will be the first of the season. They rely on such former Central and Eastside stars as Mike Kerestes, Bill Lees, Sid Levine, Mike Saracco, Johnny Alborn, Pete Miles and Frank Spagnola. Others on the squad are Jimmy Fiorina, "Zotie" Zappala and Chuck De Robbio.

Modern Central Face All-Stars

The Modern Central football team will meet the All-Stars at Olympic Field at 10 a. m. Sunday morning.

The Centrals will be out gunning for their second gridiron victory of the season, having trounced the Sterlings in their opener last week by a score of 1 to 0. The club showed lots of power in the inaugural, amassing a total of 276 yards to their opponents' 37.

FRONT WALLER—Included in University of California's front wall on the football field is Paul Semmens, two-year veteran of the Golden Bears. He's shown in action in a practice jaunt. Bears are reported shaping up well.

Colts Face East Rutherford; Ghosts Clash With West Orange

Central Favored Over Rivals In Friday Night Tilt; Injuries Hamper Eastside

Paterson's leading high school elevens will see action over the coming week-end in a set of contests that will form an appetizing dish for local football fans.

Central high school will be out gunning for its second victory of the season at Hinchliffe stadium Friday night when it clashes with the potentially strong East Rutherford high school team, which held Rutherford to a scoreless tie in its opener last Saturday.

The Colts are prepared for stern opposition, but should chalk up their second victory of the season after their fine showing against Clifton last week. The game will be played under the stadium arclights.

On Saturday afternoon, Eastside high school will open its home season at Bauerle field by meeting West Orange. The Ghosts won't be the same team that held the highly touted Woodbridge eleven to a 6-6 tie in its inaugural game last week, but because of several injuries, Coach Dave Ross is hoping for the best.

Handball Stars Start Tourney Play October 16

October 16 has been set as the date for the opening of the fourth annual Y.M.C.A. handball championships and a crack field of local stars is expected to take part in the play.

Entries will take part in three classes of competition—"A", "B" and "C" with play scheduled to be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. Silver loving cups will be awarded winners in each class.

The competition is sponsored annually by Police Commissioner Thomas J. Brogan. He is being assisted this year by Bert Westerhoff, Harold Taylor, Dr. Paul Rauschenbach, Al Van Voorhis, John Morris and Harry Baram.

Rams Set To Add Locals To List Of Victims

Panthers Meet Conquerors Of Jersey City Giants; Powers In Lineup

The Paterson Panthers will take to the road Sunday night to meet the Union City Rams in an American Professional Football Association contest at Union City. The meeting will take place under the lights and will be the fourth such contest for the locals.

A month ago, the meeting with the Rams would have been considered a breather for the Panthers, but circumstances have altered considerably, and as a result, the locals seem to be in for a busy evening.

Rams Improved

This is attributed to the fine showing made by the Union City eleven last week when it downed the champion Jersey City Giants by a 7 to 0 score. However, the way the Giants have been kicked around lately doesn't make this development such a startling one.

But it cannot be denied that the Rams have a first class club. It is led by such stalwarts as Joe Lillard, great Negro back, and Tony Sarausky, coach of the team who also is a crack ball-carrier.

All-Star Lineup

Others on the Union City squad are McCarthy and Bobrowsky, ends; Lane and Stancavage, tackles; Barberi and Bernard, guards; Bogacki, center, and Port, Karr, Byrnes and Turecki, backs.

The Panthers will line up with Joe Pilconis and Ippolito at the ends, Zucks and Bagley, tackles, Powers and Katz, guards, Baltzell, center, Renzo, Simmons, Barnes, D'Addario and Warwick in the backfield.

Texas Beauty a Champion

Miss Sydna Yokley of Texas

FROM Texas ranch society there is appearing at the Fourteenth Annual World's Championship Rodeo in Madison Square Garden, New York City, October 4 through 29, a girl from the Texas Panhandle, who is making her debut this winter, but is first teaching her city sisters that ranch girls are not mere wild flowers but can, and do take part in the daily routine of range life.

The young lady is pretty, seventeen-year-old Sydna Yokley, champion girl calf-roper of the Lone Star state, where she is a partner with her father, Jess Yokley, in the Lazy-L ranch near Canadian, Texas, and she is the only girl calf roper in the world to show her skill in a public arena. Miss Yokley is a charming and gracious brunette, a high school graduate and one of the most popular girls in Texas where her riding and roping skill has attracted national attention.

The young lady has been riding the range with her father practically before she could walk and started to rope calves when she was nine years old. Since then she has been a leading figure at most of the leading rodeos of the Southwest. She trains her own arena mounts, throws a fairly small loop with almost unerring precision, makes speedy or flying dismounts and ties her calves in record time.

Miss Yokley is one of the new features at the Garden this year where more than 200 cowboys and cowgirls contest in cowboy sports championships for $46,770 prize money which, with the entrance fees added, will make a world record rodeo purse of approximately $60,000.

feature program which lists Bob Burns, Oklahoma humorist, in "Our Leading Citizen," and another Charlie Chan adventure

ure Island," starring Sidney Toler, successor to the late Warner Oland.

Starting Saturday, a new program comes to the Regent theater. It presents "In Name Only," with Carole Lombard, Cary Grant and Kay Francis, a film in which Miss Francis plays a "heavy" role for the first time since reaching stardom.

The co-feature is "Four Feathers," Alexander Korda's thrilling production starring Ralph Richardson and C. Aubrey
Smith. The program will close Tuesday.

MAJESTIC

Charles Davis will present
"Harlem Hi-De-Ho," a spectacular colored revue starring thirty-five hot and living sepi-entertainers at the Majestic theater, Main street, beginning with this Friday's matinee. The show promises to be such a tremendous hit that the management has made plans to give four shows on Saturday and Sunday instead of the usual three.

Starring is King Cole and his jesters, one of the hottest colored orchestras in the business.
Then there is Jell Smith who was featured in Lew Leslie's Blackbirds. Jenny Dancer, a blues singer, the Three Speed Kings, Willie Jackson and Son.
As an added attraction there will be Princess Ubangi, who will entertain with her torrid jungle dances.

there will be the regular screen attractions.

U. S. THEATER

Now playing at the U. S. theater is a double-feature program which is headed by "Honeymoon in Bali," starring Fred MacMurray, Madeleine
Carroll and Allan Jones.

The film tells a light romantic story of the glamorous island of Bali where troubles are forgotten and pleasure takes precedence over the humdrum activities of life.

The co-feature on the program presents Joe E. Brown in his latest picture, "1,000 A Touchdown." The film teams up for the first time Brown and Martha Raye, who possess Hollywood's two largest mouths.

FABIAN

Dramatically turning the spotlight on women, their lives and what they do with them, "The Women," starring Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford and Rosalind Russell, and based on the smash

Broadway stage play, begins an engagement at the Fabian today, for a week's run.

The story, dedicated to the amusement of men and women alike, shows the fair sex in all of its moods and with all of its foibles.

Officers and men of the U. S.
Army Air Corps cooperated with the March of Time in the production of its latest monthly release, "Soldiers With Wings," which tells the first complete and authentic motion picture story of the part played by Army flyers in the scheme of national defense today.

In "Espionage Agent," Joel Mc-
Rea, Jeffrey Lynn, Brenda Marshall and George Bancroft are featured. The Torchy Blane production again presents Glenda Farrell and Barton McLane supported by a cast which includes Allen Jenkins and Jane Wyman.

An extra attraction that is presented at matinees only is "Dick Tracy's G-Men" with Ralph Byrd.

GARDEN

The new uncensored version of "All Quiet," currently playing at the Garden theater, tells through the eyes of Lew Ayres as the immortal "Paul Baumer" the ageless story of how war blights the mind, body and soul of an 18-year-old schoolboy.

In the uncensored "All Quiet on the Western Front," new scenes depicting war as it is waged today introduce the grim thought of a new lost generation that must grow out of the present war—a lost generation Remarque had hoped never would join his own.
