Send the following message, subject to the terms on back hereof, which are hereby agreed to

The Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower
Augusta, Georgia

Dear Mr. President:

This is just to pledge what you already know that to the very best of my ability and strength I shall try to discharge this challenging responsibility in accordance with your instructions. You know I am sure that my only interest is to serve you and your Chief of Staff, Governor Adams, in whatever way you and he may feel that I can be useful.

With admiration and devotion as always,

Tracy von

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeatable message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeatable message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and the Telegraph Company as follows:

1. The Telegraph Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeatable message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeatable message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines.

2. In any event the Telegraph Company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the actual loss, not exceeding in any event the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount the sender of each message represents that the message is valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeatable message rate is paid or agreed to be paid and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one per cent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.

3. The Telegraph Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.

4. The applicable tariff charges on a message destined to any point in the continental United States listed in the Telegraph Company's Directory of Stations cover its delivery within the established city or community limits of the destination point. Beyond such limits and to points not listed in the Telegraph Company's Directory of Stations, the Telegraph Company does not undertake to make delivery but will endeavor to arrange for delivery by any available means as the agent of the sender, with the understanding that the sender authorizes the collection of any additional charge from the addressee and agrees to pay such additional charge if it is not collected from the addressee.

5. No responsibility attaches to the Telegraph Company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Telegraph Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender; except that when the Telegraph Company sends a messenger to pick up a message, the messenger in that instance acts as the agent of the Telegraph Company in accepting the message, the Telegraph Company assuming responsibility from the time of such acceptance.

6. The Telegraph Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties when the claim is not presented in writing to the Telegraph Company, (a) within ninety days after the message is filed with the Telegraph Company for transmission in the case of a message between points within the United States (except in the case of an intrastate message in Texas) or between a point in the United States on the one hand and a point in Alaska, Canada, Mexico, or St. Pierre-Miquelon Islands on the other hand, or between a point in the United States and a ship at sea or in the air, (b) within 95 days after the cause of action, if any, shall have accrued in the case of an intrastate message in Texas, and (c) within 180 days after the message is filed with the Telegraph Company for transmission in the case of a message between a point in the United States and a foreign or overseas point other than the points specified above in this paragraph; provided, however, that this condition shall not apply to claims for damages or overcharges within the purview of Section 415 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

7. It is agreed that in any action by the Telegraph Company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.

8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.

9. No employee of the Telegraph Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION FOR MR. HAGERTY: Crossed

Mr. Voorhees is terminating this week his White House assignment as the President's representative to assure coordination of Hungarian refugee relief efforts. His letter to the President, which is annexed, is self-explanatory. He feels that the emergency situation with which he was appointed to deal is now over.

The President, on Mr. Voorhees' recommendation appointed last December 12th the President's Committee for Hungarian Refugee Relief as the principal machinery for such coordination. (Copy of the press release creating the Committee is attached.) The Committee will continue active for a time to assure continuance of the team-work of the 22 voluntary and Government agencies concerned, and to assist the voluntary agencies, the various Governors' Committees for refugees, the U. S. Employment Service and the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in making certain of the permanent satisfactory resettlement of these refugees, as well as to follow-up on plans for continuing the higher education of some 500 to 800 promising university students among them.

Total Hungarian refugees received to date from Austria under the President's emergency action have been 27,074. Of these 25,480, or 94 %, have already left the Joyce Kilmer Reception Center for resettlement under the sponsorship of various voluntary agencies -- most of them ^{with} religious affiliations and representing the principal religious faiths.

The balance now at Kilmer is only 1594. Slightly under 4,000 have arrived or are arriving during this month. Arrivals during March will be on a flexible basis but will not be greater than in February.

The President may perhaps desire to express his appreciation of the work of the voluntary agencies and of the warmhearted reception given by the American people to these refugees from communist terror.

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 28, 1957

James C. Hagerty, Press Secretary to the President

THE WHITE HOUSE

THE WHITE HOUSE TODAY MADE
PUBLIC THE FOLLOWING EXCHANGE OF CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN THE
PRESIDENT AND THE HONORABLE
TRACY S. VOORHEES

Dear Tracy:

I have your letter of the twenty-fifth and am deeply gratified by the accomplishments you reported in regard to resettlement of Hungarian refugees in this country.

As you pointed out, the success of this program is truly the product of the warmhearted actions of the American people as a whole and of the religious and other voluntary agencies in particular. Their immediate and generous response to this urgent need has been of inestimable value.

I am delighted to know that almost all of these refugees have now gone on from Camp Kilmer to other parts of our land. Thanks to the highly cooperative spirit that has characterized this effort, the remaining elements of the resettlement program will, I am confident, be accomplished without difficulty. I look forward with great interest to the report that you indicated will be made later by the Committee.

As you conclude your immediate responsibilities here, I want to express my sincere appreciation of your large and effective contribution to the success of this program. I know that the coordinating mission you agreed to undertake last November was not an easy one, and I am grateful to you for devoting your time and ability so completely to its successful outcome.

With warm regard,

Sincerely,

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

Dear Mr. President:

Last November you asked me to act as your representative in connection with Hungarian refugee relief activities to assure full co-ordination of the work of the various voluntary and Government agencies, and to set up the requisite machinery for this purpose. The understanding was that this assignment was for temporary emergency purposes only. My responsibilities were defined as relating to the movement of refugees to this country and their reception and resettlement, not to the separate problems existing in Austria.

On my recommendation you appointed the President's Committee for Hungarian Refugee Relief as the machinery for the co-ordination of the work of the voluntary agencies generally and of their work with the Government agencies at the Joyce Kilmer Reception Center. To date 27,373 refugees have been received. More than 94% of these have already left Kilmer for resettlement under the sponsorship of responsible religious and other voluntary agencies. The President's Committee has assisted these agencies to the full extent possible, but the major credit for success in this resettlement work belongs to the voluntary agencies themselves and to the warm hearted action of the people of America.

As the above figures indicate, the emergency phase of your refugee program has now been met. The President's Committee has a useful continuing function for a reasonable further interval and will remain active while this need exists. The co-ordination of the work of the various Government departments and agencies in Washington has been effected through an informal group with which I have met at frequent intervals. This work has also now become routine. We are, I believe, now adequately organized to move to the U. S., to receive and to resettle on a routine basis any presently foreseeable number of Hungarian refugees who may be permitted to come.

For the above reasons I shall, subject to your approval, terminate my duties in the White House this week, but shall continue to serve as Chairman of the President's Committee. The Committee will later make its own report to you.

It has been for me a unique privilege to have been able to serve as your representative in this cause in which I so deeply believe and under the inspiration of your leadership.

With my gratitude,

Yours faithfully,

TRACY S. VCORHEES

Dear Tracy:

Although I know the deep satisfaction you feel in the accomplishments of the President's Committee for Hungarian Refugee Relief far outweighs any words of gratitude that I can summon, I nonetheless want once more to thank you personally for undertaking -- and carrying through to conclusion so successfully -- an extremely delicate and complicated assignment. The American people, as well as the refugees who have been resettled here, are greatly indebted to you.

I have written notes to all the members of the Committee who served with you, as well as the suggested letters to Tom Watson and Henry Ford. I also sent a letter to Secretary Brucker, asking him to pass along my congratulations to the Army and to General Wooten.

Once again, my personal thanks and, as always, my warm regard,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Dwight D. Eisenhower". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Dwight" being more prominent and the last name "Eisenhower" written in a continuous script.
