KENNETH LATHAM

The body of Private First Class Kenneth Latham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Latham of 215 Howard street, this city, who was killed in action on the German front on November 23, 1944, has arrived in this city and funeral services will be held from the Latham home on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted by the Rev. Paul A. Friedrich of the First Methodist Church. Interment will be in Van Liew Cemetery. The Quackeboss Funeral Home will direct.

Mr. Latham, besides his parents, is survived by a brother Ralph C. Latham and a sister, Roberta J. Latham.

Mr. Latham went overseas on September 17, 1944, and saw combat duty in France.

Originally he trained at Fort Bragg, N. C., with a field artillery unit. Later he joined a specialized training program and was transferred to the infantry and shipped to Camp Clairborne, La. for training.

Mr. Latham was a graduate of the local high school and was in his second year at Rutgers University when he entered service.
