

57th ANNIVERSARY

OF THE

Presbyterian Sabbath School, of Flemington,

ON

Sunday, September 27th, 1874.

ORDER OF EXERCISES.

SINGING—"As the Year Rolls Round."

'Tis indeed, a pleasant sight,
As the year rolls round,
When together we unite,
As the year rolls round;
Songs of gladness to repeat,
Heavenly blessings to entreat,
With the chain of love complete,
As the year rolls round.

CHORUS—Happy song! joyful strain,
Sing aloud the glad refrain;
Mirth and music shall resound,
As the year, the ever changing year
rolls round.

Cloudy skies will change to fair,

As the year rolls round;
Joy will sorrow's waste repair,
As the year rolls round:
From the dark and wintry bowers,
We may pluck the beauteous flowers,
Making fragrant all the hours,
As the year rolls round.

Happy seasons come and go,
As the year rolls round;
Tides of ocean ebb and flow,
As the year rolls round;
Life and love this law obey,
Bringing us a festive day,
Bringing every heart its May,
As the year rolls round.

READING OF SCRIPTURE.

PRAYER.

SINGING—"Linger No Longer."

Linger no longer;
Mercy is waiting for thee;
Sin will grow stronger;
Now from its tyranny flee;
The world that is smiling so cheerful and gay,
From Jesus is leading thee farther away.

CHORUS—Turn from thy straying,
No longer delaying;
Heaven opens for thee—
Turn from thy straying,
No longer delaying;
Heaven opens for thee,

Wealth without measure,
Honor and fame thou may'st see;
No earthly treasure
Ever can satisfy thee;
Thy richest possessions delusive will prove,
But wealth that endureth is laid up above.

Though like a mountain,
Sin on thy conscience should be,
Come to the fountain
Opened at Calvary;
Thou need'st no longer from happiness roam;
The Saviour is waiting to welcome thee home.

Reading of Yearly Reports.

SINGING by Infant Class—"Let Us Walk in the Light."

'Tis religion that can give—
In the light, in the light;
Sweetest pleasure while we live—
In the light of God.
'Tis religion must supply—
In the light, in the light;
Solid comfort when we die—
In the light of God.

CHORUS—Let us walk in the light,
Walk in the light;

Let us walk in the light,
In the light of God.

After death its joys shall be—
In the light, in the light;
Lasting as eternity—
In the light of God.
Be the living God my friend—
In the light, in the light;
Then my bliss shall never end—
In the light of God.

ADDRESS BY REV. WILLIAM HARRIS, OF PRINCETON, N. J.

SINGING—"The Bible Song."

Guard the Bible well,
All its foes repel,
The sweet story tell
Of the Lord;
Guard what God revealed,
As our sun and shield;
Never, never yield
His holy word.

CHORUS—Rouse, then, Christians,
Rally for the Bible!
Work on, pray on, spread the truth abroad;
Stand, then, like men,
In the cause triumphant,
For the Bible is the word of God.

Book of Love divine,
Precious word of thine,
Let it ever shine
All abroad;
In the Spirit's might,

We must win the fight,
For this Gospel light,
The truth of God.

Shout the Bible song,
Swell the mighty throng,
In the cause be strong,
Of the right;
Look to God in prayer,
When the foe you dare,
And forever wear
His armor bright.

O, ye Christian band,
For this Bible stand,
By the Lord's command,
Ne'er give o'er;
Lead the army on,
Till the strife is done
And the cause is won,
Forever more.
