

Pfc. Kenneth Latham
Now Listed as Dead

KENNETH S. LATHAM

The War Department notified Mr. and Mrs. Roy Latham of 215 Howard street Tuesday night that their son, Pfc. Kenneth S. Latham, who had been previously reported missing in action, died on November 23 at the German front.

The first telegram was received December 8 stating that the 21-year-old soldier had been missing since November 23. The last letter Pvt. Latham sent home was posted November 13. He was in Holland at the time.

On September 17 he arrived in England and shortly afterward went to France for active combat duty. A graduate of New Brunswick High School, he began his military career on April 21, 1943, while in his second year at Rutgers University.

Originally he trained at Fort Bragg, N. C., with a field artillery unit. Later he joined an army specialized training program which was abandoned. He was then transferred to the infantry and shipped to Camp Clairborne, La., for training.

Besides his parents he leaves a brother, Sgt. Ralph C., who is with a reconnaissance squadron in Hawaii, and a sister, Miss Roberta J., at home.

A special memorial will be observed for him in the First Methodist Church, George street, at 11 a. m. Sunday.
