KENNETH S. LATHAM

Pfc. Kenneth S. Latham, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Latham, 215 Howard street, has been reported missing in action since November 23. The last letter he wrote home was dated November 13. He was in Holland at the time.

A native of this city, he graduated from New Brunswick High School and was in his second year at Rutgers when he entered the service on April 27, 1943.

He first trained at Fort Bragg, N. C., with a field artillery unit until he was transferred to an Army Specialized Training Program at The Citadel, Charleston, S. C. He continued this training at Johns Hopkins in Baltimore. The program was then abandoned and he was sent to Camp Claiborne, La., to join an infantry unit.

On September 17, he arrived in England, prior to going over to France to begin active combat. He has been through France, Brussels and Liege.

A brother, Sgt. Ralph C. Latham, is with a reconnaissance squadron in Hawaii.
