

April 6, 1941.

In spite of a driving rain, New Brunswick and Highland Park High School girls distributed hundreds of daffodils yesterday to local shoppers in search of Easter finery. The flowers were contributed by the Chamber of Commerce in an effort to promote holiday spirit in the city.
