This matter being at law is heard in the presence of the defendant and fully sworn, competent jury, attorney, and jury to receive evidence, advising that the United States, and its jurisdiction of this case, are for the defendant.

It is therefore ordered that the arrest of the U.S.
Commissioner directing the apprehension of this defendant is done to and the case is here assigned and held for the defendant as directed by the court to the United States Charge of the Court, U.S.
