

Re. Hon Jin Fung, New York (Chinese) File,
No. 104/60.

- Q. When did you buy this laundry?
A. Three years ago.
Q. Have you been working here as a laundryman for the past three years?
A. Yes.
Q. Who else works in this laundry with you?
A. No one.
Q. Have you any seaman's papers here?
A. No.
Q. Where are your seaman's papers?
A. I burned them up. I burned them after I was discharged from the ship.
Q. Why did you burn them?
A. I burned them by mistake in this laundry.
Q. Are you positive that yourself, as well as your parents, were born in China and that you are now a citizen of China?
A. Yes.
Q. What is your race?
A. Chinese.
Q. Whose photographs are these (referring to small photographs of the Chinaman under examination and of another Chinese found in laundry)?
A. One of them is myself and the other is my son.
Q. Where is this son now?
A. He is in the home village in China.
Q. Was he ever in the United States?
A. No.
Q. What dialect do you speak and understand?
A. Hoy Ping.
Q. Have you thoroughly understood this interpreter?
A. Yes.
Q. Have you any further statement you wish to make?
A. No.

Witness' signature as traced from stenographic note book.

長春

Feb. 11, 1926.

The above statement was this date translated and read to me and same is true and correct.

Notes transcribed, Feb. 6,
1926, 10:00 A.M.

Lewis B. Reynolds
Immigrant Inspector &
Acting Stenographer.

長春

-2-

February 11, 1926.

I hereby certify that I this date translated into the Chinese dialect and read the above record of statement to Hon Jin Fung, after which he declared same to be true and correct and signed same as above.

Forman M. Chen
Chinese Interpreter.