Hints.

The Pastor can be seen at the parsonage, 354 George St., every day, except Monday, upon matters of temporal or spiritual concern,—

From 8 to 9 A. M.

“ 1:30 to 2:30 P. M.

“ 6:30 to 7:30 “

And he earnestly desires his people to use these opportunities freely.

It will be the endeavor of the Pastor to call upon all the families in the Church as frequently as possible. Cases of sickness, trouble or spiritual need will take precedence to all others. Do not fail to inform him of serious sickness in your family.

Do not appoint meetings, weddings or funerals, at which you expect your Pastor to be present, without consulting him as to time. Avoid as far as possible the appointment of funerals on the Sabbath day.

Be sure to take some Religious Paper for your family.

For Missionary Intelligence about our Reformed Church work take “The Mission Field,” 50c. per year, or “The Mission Gleaner,” 25c. per year.

Avoid reading the Sunday issue of the secular Newspapers.

An unusual feature of our Sabbath morning service is the Five Minute Sermon to children. Be sure to bring your little ones to the Sanctuary to hear these talks.

Members who are hindered by distance from worshipping with us regularly are enjoined to attend the Lord's Supper at least once a year in the "Mother Church."

Persons desiring sittings or pews, or to contribute to the Incidental Expense Account, will communicate with MR. ISAAC V. VAN DOREN, 19 Kirkpatrick Street.

Strangers and New-comers always find a welcome at the First Reformed Church.

New features of Church work will be introduced from time to time.
