Order No. 8. Reville will be beat at sun-rise, when the sentinels will leave off challenging; and im-mmediately thereafter, the tents and the space around them will be put in order by the men, superintended by the chiefs of squads, and the guard-house by the guard.

The Breakfast Call will be sounded at 6 1-2 o'clock, A. M.; the Dinner Call at 12, M.; and a signal for Supper at 6 P. M.

Retreat will be sounded at sun-set.

Tattoo will be sounded at 9 1-2, P. M., when the sentinels will commence challenging, and the men will retire to their tents. At 10 the “taps” will be given, when the lights in the company tents will be extinguished, and all noise must cease in the camp.

All the calls will be sounded under the direction of the Officer of the Guard; and the Officer of the Day, assisted by the Officer of the Guard, will see that they are promptly obeyed.

There will be daily, three stated Roll-calls, viz: At Reville, Retreat and Tattoo. They will be made on the company parades, by the first sergeants, superintended by a commissioned officer of the company, and the captains or commandants of companies will report the absentees without leave, to the Commanding Officer of the regiment.

A police guard, consisting of two sergeants, three corporals, one fifer, two drummers and seventy-five men will be detailed every day. The adjutant, under the direction of the Commanding officer, will determine the manner of making the details.

The first call for guard mounting will be sounded at 8 1-2, A. M., when the men warned for duty will turn out on their company parades for inspection by their first sergeants. Fifteen minutes af-

After that signal, the second call will be sounded, when the detachments will repair to the regimental parade, conducted by the first sergeants.

The Surgeons' call will be sounded immediately after guard-mounting, when the sick, having previously reported themselves to the first sergeants, will be conducted to the hospital tents.

There will be daily one dress parade, at retreat.
The Drill Call will be sounded at 10, A. M., when all the officers and non-commissioned officer sc (including the staff) are on special duty, together with the band, will assemble on the regimental parade, for instruction under a field officer.

Company drills will take place daily, at such hours, not inconsistent with regimental duties, as the commandants of companies may determine.

Loaded arms of all kinds, except the arms of the guard and those in immediate use for target practice, are expressly prohibited, unless by orders of commandants of companies, and all smoking within the company tents is prohibited.

No compliments whatsoever will be paid by the guard or by sentinels between tattoo and reville.

Divine service will be held every sabbath, at 11 o'clock, A. M. Each officer and soldier, not on other duty, nor detained by sickness, is expected to be present, without arms. Sentinels will continue to challenge throughout the sabbath, and permit no person not in possession of the counter sign to pass, without permission of the officer of the day.

No spirituous liquors will be permitted to be kept within or about the company tents, nor sold about the camp, except so far as may be prescribed by the medical staff.

Commandants of companies will, until further orders, instruct their commands according to the system of “infantry tactics” adopted by the war department May 1st, 1861, omitting, however, the manual of arms for the rifle.

The especial attention of captains and subalterns is called to paragraphs 81, 82, 83, 86, 88, and 111 of the army regulations.

A copy of this order will be delivered to each officer and non-commissioned officer, and a copy also posted in each tent by the first sergeants of companies.

By command of G. W. McLean, Colonel.
Jos. W. Plume, Adjutant.
