THE NEW Roseland
Free Public Library

Roseland, NJ 07068

We are now engaged in raising the final $200,000 of the original $1,450,000 budgeted to construct and complete the Roseland Public Library and Community Center. Already, we have garnered $800,000 from Borough bonding and $450,000 from private donations and governmental grants. Thanks to you, the new Library, the structure of which you can see gracing the corner of Roseland Avenue and Fells Road, will provide materials and services important to each and every Roseland citizen. The enclosed booklet reveals the whole picture.

Now the project depends upon you to enter the picture and ensure its success! The new Library is a multi-functional community asset, and this is truly your single opportunity to make a contribution of timely and enduring impact. To meet our goal, we need 100% participation from the 1800+ Roseland householders.

You are invited to send back the enclosed pledge card within the next two weeks. If we do not receive your pledge card by then, it is our plan to have one of your neighbors call upon you to answer your questions and provide you with another opportunity to join this endeavor.

The $200,000 goal of this drive will be used to purchase furnishings, equipment, and additional materials. Please show your enthusiasm now. Start us on our way toward a 100% response. We are making this appeal to each other for a project that benefits us deeply and directly.

Thanking you in advance,

Eileen Linehan
