

Proclamation

WHEREAS, libraries are treasured repositories of literary and artistic materials, which enable individuals of all ages and backgrounds the opportunity to explore new ideas and places, or simply to entertain themselves through works of fiction; and

WHEREAS, the Borough of Roseland is erecting its first library building and community center to provide a proper physical setting to dispense such services as book lending; audio visual services; film and video cassette lending; book discussion sessions; children's programs and information services;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Louis DeBell, Mayor of the Borough of Roseland do hereby proclaim the entire month of May 1987 as in the Borough of Roseland and urge all citizens to familiarize themselves with the services provided by the dedicated staff of the Roseland Public Library.

April 23rd, 1987

LOUIS DE BELL, MAYOR
