

Proclamation

ROSELAND READS TOGETHER

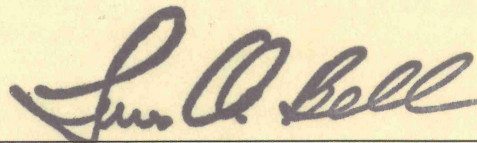

WHEREAS, the Roseland Free Public Library is celebrating its 30th Anniversary by inviting Roseland families to participate in a Borough-wide reading activity; and

WHEREAS, everyone in Roseland is invited to read the same book; and

WHEREAS, the book that was selected is Homer Price by Robert McCloskey which reflects the joy of small town living in the U.S.A.; and

WHEREAS, residents may pick up their book at the Roseland Library starting the week of April 15th and sign a pledge to gather their family and read a chapter a night.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Louis DeBell, Mayor of the Borough of Roseland do hereby encourage the residents of the Borough of Roseland to participate in the "Roseland Reads Together" program to celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the Roseland Free Public Library and attend the celebration with festivities based on the book on Saturday, May 11th.

LOUIS DE BELL, MAYOR

Date: April 23, 2002

