

"ONE BOOK, ONE CITY"

Seattle started it in 1996.

Toronto, Buffalo, Cleveland and lots of other cities did it too.

Chicago called it, "One Book, One Chicago."

Peoria called it "Peoria Reads."

Now it's coming to the Borough of Roseland and it's called -

"ROSELAND READS TOGETHER"

BUT - What is "it"?

Basically, everyone in Roseland is going to read the same book.

Participating families will be asked to take a pledge to stop everything, gather the family, and enjoy some old-fashioned togetherness and the pleasures of a book.

What's the book? You need to visit the Library starting the week of Monday, April 15 to find out. Then, sign the pledge and pick up your paperback copy to keep and enjoy.

Put Saturday, May 11 from 10 - 1 on your calendar. We will all meet at the Library for a celebration with festivities based on the book.
