

ROSELAND READS TOGETHER

The Roseland Free Public Library plans to celebrate its 30th Anniversary by inviting Roseland families to participate in a Borough-wide reading activity.

THE PLAN- Everyone in Roseland is invited to read the same book.

OK - What's the book?

HOMER PRICE by Robert McCloskey, a wonderful children's book that reflects the joy of small town living in the U.S.A.

Starting Monday, April 15, each participating family will be asked to visit the Library, take the pledge and pick up their copy of the book.

On Saturday, May 11 from 10 - 1, we will gather for a celebration with festivities based on the book.

So, take the pledge.

Stop the clock.

Gather the family.

Read together.

Step back in time.

Imagine life in Roseland in the olden days.

These stories could have happened here.

Read a chapter a night.

Read it cover to cover.

Take turns reading out loud.

Then...

Join us on Saturday, May 11, from 10 - 1

for an

Old Fashioned Saturday Social

Don't dress up

Everyone is invited to participate -

All the residents of Centerberg - Centerville - we mean Roseland ...

Young and Old

Singles

Families with kids

Families without them

Events ...You'll have to read the book to understand these...

- Join us for a donut and coffee. Meet the neighbors.

- Visit the Library.

- Bring string... as much as you can.

When you read the book, you'll know what we are going to do with it!

- Make a diamond bracelet (well, it will sort-of look like diamonds).

- Decorate donuts.

- Dress like Homer Price and enter the 'Homer Look-A-Like Contest' at noon.

- Enter your name in a Special Drawing for a stuffed pet skunk!

- And much more!
