TRIPS A WHEEL
WHERE TO GO AND HOW TO GET THERE

OUR CYCLE ROUTE NO. 3

The New Road to Atlantic City

THE WHITE HOUSE PIER

A QUARRY NEAR WASHINGTON, D.C.

The White House is a popular spot for cycling enthusiasts. The route passes through various scenic areas, including the historic White House Pier. The map shows the route's path through the countryside, providing a scenic ride for cyclists.

SOME FACTS ABOUT THAT L. A. W. MEET

Transportation Committee to Be Led by S. S. Chapman, Washington Wheelman

THAT RUN TO ATLANTIC

The committee is planning the route for the L. A. W. meet, taking into account various factors such as terrain and weather. The meeting will commence shortly, and arrangements are being made for the event.

TO-DAYS CLUB RUNS

Washington Scenic Club Run: Members will have an outing to a scenic location near the White House. The ride will cover various areas of interest, including historical landmarks.

BOB HARMON

Cycling enthusiasts are encouraged to join Bob Harmon on his regular runs. The route is designed to provide an enjoyable experience for all participants.

MOTT'S RECENT EFFORT CAUSED SOME COMMENT

Racing Board Chairman Stresses Popular Child With Race Meet Promoters.

TWO BIG CENTURIES

Foremost a focus on the 100th anniversary of the Philadelphia Inquirer. The newspaper has a long history and is renowned for its contributions to the cycling community. Celebrations and events are planned to commemorate this milestone.

S. SPENCER HAMM

A noted cycling enthusiast and historian, S. Spencer Hamm provides insights into the history of cycling in the region. His expertise is highly sought after by those interested in the sport's evolution.

THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER—SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1897.