letters are very bright spots in busy weeks. I can't tell you how much I appreciate them, but there come my address below:

Capt. Will G. Atwood
4th Br. 155 Depot Brigade
Camp Lee, Va.

December 28, 1917.

Captain W. G. Atwood, 4th Battalion, 155 Depot Brigade,
Camp Lee, Virginia.

Dear Mr. Atwood:

Thank you for your postal of December 20th and for the good word concerning the war service bureau. Such words of appreciation make our work more worth while and we are mighty grateful to you for writing them. I hope that you will let me know of any future change in address.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Send the Rutgers letter to my address as given below. Please don't miss sending any of them and be sure your work is appreciated.

Will G. Atwood
Capt Inf. R. C.
Hq. 3rd Development Battalion
155th Depot Brigade
Camp Lee, Va.

Only a few miles change in my geographical location.
Sorry I can't report more.

Mr. Earl R. Silver
Rutgers College
New Brunswick, N. J.

My dear Mr. Silver:-

I am writing this to give you my new address.
I was transferred from Camp Dix to the 811th Pioneer Infantry at the request of the Commanding Officer of that regiment but unfortunately my promotion came through a few days after I joined the regiment and I had to be left behind. I hope you won't straddle me off the list for any of the bulletins, and I hope to be able to drop in and see you before very long.

Sincerely,

Will G. Howard

1910.

Captain Will G. Atwood, 12th Tr.Bn.,
153rd Depot Brigade,
Camp Dix, N. J.

Dear Mr. Atwood:

I do not think I have acknowledged your letter of October 20. It was good of you to write us and we appreciate your interest in the college and your kind word about the war service letters. Please do not forget your promise to drop in to see me before long.

Sincerely yours,
