

January 22nd. 1918.

Dr. William I. Chamberlain,
35 East 22nd. Street,
New York City.

Dear Dr. Chamberlain:-

Thank you for your letter of January 19th and for your good word about the New York dinner. I am very sorry that circumstances did not permit my being present. I foolishly made a trip to New York yesterday to get the flags but found your office closed.
I hope to get in again on Thursday of this week.

With best personal regards,

Very sincerely yours,

GENERAL SYNOD ACTION OF JUNE, 1918: "General Synod most heartily Appreciates, Commends and Endorses the work of the War Service Commission of the Reformed Church in America, and Commends it to the most loyal and liberal support of the churches."

Mr. Earl Reed Silvers,
New Brunswick, N.J.

Dear Mr. Silvers:

In response to your reminder of Sept. 25, requesting items of news regarding the members of my class, I am sorry to say that the only definite information I have, ~~is~~ regarding members of the class of 1882, besides those <sup>it is</sup> that have already appeared in the Quarterly, ~~relates~~ to myself.

During the past summer, I have been in Chaplain Service as Volunteer Chaplain at Camp Upton assigned by the Commanding General to the 7th Battalion of the 152nd Depot Brigade. My term of service ran from July 1 to September 30.

I have also been made a member of the Executive Committee of the General War Service Commission <sup>Time</sup> ~~at~~ the Federal Conference of Churches and of the sub-committee on Army and Navy Chaplains, whose office is in Washington. This Committee has to do with the nomination of all Protestant Chaplains for Army and Navy.

Yours sincerely,

Wm. I. Chamberlain

Mr. Earl Reed Silvers,
Rutgers College,
New Brunswick, N.J.

Dear Mr. Silvers:

I have yours of January 11th asking about my classmate Blauvelt. He was very difficult to get replies from and I have not heard from him since he came on to receive the honorary degree at the Sesqui Centennial. I am expecting to have occasion soon to write around to the Class in regard to our 35th Anniversary and if I can get word from Blauvelt I shall be glad to pass on the result to you. If there is any active Rutgers man at Denver I should imagine that he could get in touch with Blauvelt. Whether Theodore DeWitt would help out I do not know. His brother, John, does not often hear from him I understand. But I imagine if Dr. Demarest should write to him he would get an answer for boyhood memories' sake.

Very sincerely yours,

L Chamberlain
