RUTGERS ALUMNI QUARTERLY

EARL REED SILVERS '13
MANAGING EDITOR

May 17, 1918

Mr. Oscar Church,

High Falls, N.Y.

My dear Mr. Church:

The July issue of the Rutgers Alumni Quarterly will be devoted almost entirely to the Rutgers students and alumni now in the service of the United States. We are especially anxious to print letters, or parts of letters, from our men in France; and with this purpose in mind, we are writing you. Perhaps you have some letters from Franklin O. Church which we could print, wholly or in part. It doesn't matter how informal they may be; we have always found such letters filled with the optimistic spirit which does much to hearten those of us who must stay behind.

If you have on hand anything which you think will be of interest to the Rutgers alumni and undergraduate body, we hope that you will send it to us. We shall promise to return the original letters uninjured and to use only such passages as you may indicate.

If you wish to see a copy of the Alumni Quarterly we shall be most pleased to send you one.

Cordially yours,

Earl Reed Silvers
Managing Editor.

Would be pleased to have copy of quarterly,

*Yours
Oscar Church*

Mr. Oscar Church,

High Falls, N.Y.

My dear Mr. Church:

Thank you for the letter from Franklin . It arrived too late to be used in the July issue of the Quarterly but we are saving it for our October number and shall most certainly send you a copy. The letter will be returned to you within a week or so.

Cordially yours,

ERS/W
