TRAFFIC

NEW YORK September 10, 1917.

Mr. Earl Reed Silvers,
Assistant to the President,
Rutgers College,
New Brunswick, N.J.

Dear Mr. Silvers,-

In reply to your letter of August 31, 1917, addressed to the Alumni of Rutgers College, I would state that I appreciate very much the efforts which the College is putting forth to assist the Alumni in securing proper positions during the present war.

I will be glad to avail myself of your recommendation with regard to the transfer of drafted men to the field of work for which they are especially trained. At present I have not been called; therefore cannot give you any of the information required.

Yours truly,

Samuel C. Cooper.

Class of 1914.

POST CARD

Earl Reed Silvers

Rutgers College

New Brunswick, N. J.

September 26, 1918.

Dear Mr. Silvers

I am in receipt of your card, and am very much surprised that mail of the War Service Bureau addressed on your card was, did not reach me and was returned to you. I had notified my post office of my changed address and correspondence should have been forwarded.

I will be very grateful to you if you will kindly let me have all letters which I have missed so that I may be fully informed of what is going on. All mail should be addressed to me personally at the war address given below.

Thanking you I am, very truly yours
