

October 15th. 1917.

Rev. Dr. William S. Cranmer,

22 North Bridge Street,

Somerville, N.J.

Dear Dr. Cranmer:-

I understand that Clarkson has been called to the service and I am very anxious to keep in touch with him. If you will send me his present address I shall be very grateful.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Earl Reed Silvers,
New Brunswick, N. J.

Dear Mr. Silvers,

Clarkson's present address
is, Naval Station,

Pelham Bay Park,

City Island, N. York

He was ill with typhoid
during July and August,
and was allowed a very
brief convalescence

However, he says he is doing well and glad to be in line.

Yours truly,

Wm. S. Cranmer

Myson Clarkson has been ill in hospital, with typhoid; he is now convalescing, but may not have received your circular.
Permit me, therefore, to answer
for him: -

Clarkson Atwood Cranmer '16,
(Enlisted) Seaman, Naval Reserve

The Commandant, being apprised of Clarkson's illness, has not yet called him into active service. How soon he will be physically fit I cannot say.

Yours &c W. S. Cranmer

RUTGERS COLLEGE
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.

EARL REED SILVERS '13
DIRECTOR

ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS TO THE DIRECTOR

ESTABLISHED FOR THE PURPOSE OF KEEPING RUTGERS MEN IN TOUCH WITH RUTGERS AND WITH ONE ANOTHER

YOU CAN GIVE US SOME VALUABLE INFORMATION

Rutgers College has established a War Service Bureau which will make every effort to keep Rutgers men in service in touch with the activities of the college. It is planned to write weekly news letters to these men, to answer any questions they may ask about the college or its alumni and undergraduates, and to serve them in as many ways as possible for the duration of the war.

We understand that Clarkson A. Cranmer is in the service of the United States, but we do not know where he is located. In order to permit him to receive the benefits of this Bureau, will you please send us his definite address at once, using card enclosed for that purpose. Your co-operation would be appreciated.

Mr. W. S. Crammer,
22 North Bridge Street,
Somerville, N. J.

My dear Mr. Crammer:

I am sorry that we have bothered you about Clarkson's address but letters sent to him at Pelham Training Station have been returned and we assumed that he had changed his location and had not notified us.

Very truly yours,

Director.

My dear Mr. Silvers,

Yours is the soft answer
that "turneth away wrath".

If I seemed a little tart,
pray forgive me.

So easily, of late, I get into what used to be called
"a state of mind".

It is a bad habit, and does not justify the giving of offence.

Sincerely yours,
W^m S. Cranmer.
