Mr. Neil D. Quimby,

Naval Training Camp,

Dear Mr. Quimby:-

I am mighty glad to get your postal of November 18th. I did not know just where you were stationed and could not therefore place you on our mailing list for the weekly letters. However, I have listed your name with the others and you will most certainly receive whatever material we send out. Please tell the Rutgers men whom you may see to keep in touch with me and if any of them are not receiving the letters, a postal card containing their name and address will set things right.

With all good wishes,

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Neal D. Quimby,

U.S.S. C. #81,

Postmaster, N.Y.C.

Dear Quimby;-

Thank you for your postal of December 20, telling of your new address. It is good of you to notify me, and I hope that the work you are entering upon will be interesting. The boys haven't kicked much about missing mid-year exams, but a good many of them are 'sore' about going to college on the New Year.

Good luck to you.

Rutgers War Service Bureau,

Dear Mr. Silvers,

You know how it is, or no you do to much writing, but you have undoubtedly noticed how it is when one has to have his essay in on, say Wednesday by four thirty P. M. and the bulk of the essay is done late Tuesday night and early Wednesday morning, well that is how tardy I feel about not having expressed my thanks for those live wire bulletins you send out so regular. ^{TP} They sure do bring back the old days, (you would think I was an "old timer" with that "old days" talk but it does ^{seem} longer than fifteen months since I was a so-called sophisticated sophomore sporting around the old campus. I even the bulletins alone will do a lot toward bringing the undergraduates back to college soon. They have altered my intentions and I sure will be back if possible. I regret with the rest the sad news the bulletins have been carrying lately. It seems inevitable that any institution be without a Roll of Honor.

I will start another paragraph and incidentally mark the second one with the old paragraph sign "P" just to show that I have remembered some of Prof. ~~Hale~~ admonishings. At this Base (#25) or in this ent-chaser fortilla I have been unable to find any Rutgers men but there are plenty of Jersey boys who have friends there and are interested, so I'm not so bad off.

The Quarterly, is the last one, came O.K. and I've had the others but in none of them has my name been included and I naturally regret the honor, some mistake probably.
Yours in Rutgers, Neal D. Trumbull '19

Dear Mr. Quimby:

Thank you for your letter of August 27th and for your good word about our war service bulletins. I am sorry that we have not included you on our honor roll but you may be assured that the error will be corrected in the October issue of the Quarterly. We will try to send you one if possible.

With the best of good wishes .

Cordially yours,
