Dear George:-

It is good to hear from you again.

I have kept in close touch with the course of your illness and rejoice with you that you have recovered entirely. I thank you for your kindness in sending $3.00 for your quarterly subscription. It is splendid of you to think of us at this time and we are very grateful for your loyal support.

Dear Sil:

Well here we are at last.

I thought the war would be over before I could say that, but they look pity on us and let me go after ten months of freezing and baking in Alabama. I've been here two weeks now and have just got over that charred feeling.
Hav'n't time to write much as they keep engineers busy even in a rest camp. This is just to tell you my address.

Lt. G. H. Schlotter

Dear George;-

Your letter was just like an old friend dropping in on one unexpectedly. It is good to know that you haven't forgotten us, and we appreciate your kindness in writing.

Good luck to you in the big adventure. May you return safe and sound, and may we meet again at some New York Alumni Dinner in the not far future. Do you remember that dinner three or four years ago?

Cordially yours,
