Dr. H. S. Demarest,
Pres. Rutgers College.

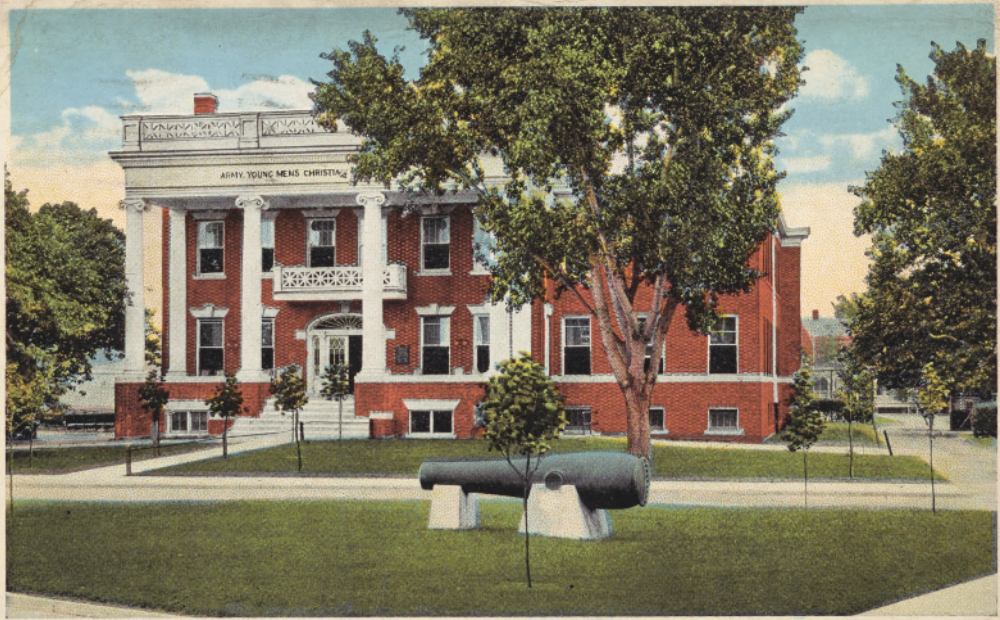

Dear Sir,

My Son Leland Taliaferro, enlisted in the Coast Artillery at Fort-Hancock, at the close of the College term, and is now in the Officers Training Company at Fort Monroe, Va.
I was very sorry that the conditions of the Country were such as to interfere with his College Course, but he being of Draft-age, thought it best to take advantage of this opportunity to enlist.-

Thanking you for the interest taken, I am,

Sincerely Yours,

Alice B. Taliaferro,

ARMY Y. M. C. A., FORT MONROE, VA.

Am very busy getting the war dope here. Received your news letter, and would like to have Quarterly. Wittpenn & Anderson, R. E. are here, too. A minute off here is a prize. Seal Taliaferro, Remember me to him. 2nd. Co., C.A.C., Martin's 5th. Officers Camp, Fort Monroe, Va.

Quarters 18.

Dear Earl Reed,

Have a little breathing spell tonight, so thought I would drop you a line. I have been here for three weeks, but will soon be on my way. Am assigned to the 30th. Regiment, C.A.C. We leave here about the 5th. of November for

Camp Eustis, Va. By Dec. 1, we are to be on our way to France.
(Confidental).

Will do so more training in the old country, & then get into the fray,
if there is any fray left by then.

Have been very busy here as commander of 7 Companies, Control Officer & Mine Commander.

But I was relieved of all that Saturday. I am to act as battalion adjutant in the new reg.

I was up to N. B. & saw the Rutgers-Wesleyan contest. I did not have much time, but when I stopped in the office you were out.

How is the A. A. J. C. coming along?

Like every Rutgers man I am praying for that game with Georgia Tech.

would give lots to get a glimpse of the teams working against each other.

I have had no written communications from school since the last of August. Would certainly appreciate some real news. I will be here till Nov. 5th., & then at Camp Eustis till Dec. 1.

Give my best to Mr. Martin & the others.

Will close with best wishes for old Rutgers.

Very sincerely,
Leal Taliaferro.

Dear Leal:

It was good to have your letter of October 29 and to know of your plans for the next few months. I wish you the best of success in the work you are undertaking.

Cordially yours,
