NEW BRUNSWICK, NEW JERSEY

Oct. 16, 1919.

Dear Mr. Silvers:

The only war service that I performed, apart from my participation in the S. A. T. C., was in connection with the local branch of the Red Cross. For some two months in the fall of 1918, I served on a committee who had in charge the inspection and preparation of Christmas boxes that were sent to the American ^{overseas} soldiers. Mr. Richardson, Assistant-Postmaster of New Brunswick, was chairman of the committee, and the headquarters was in the Post Office building.

Very truly yours
Charles H. Whitman.
