

II.

CALL FOR ENGINEERS.

Mr. Philander Betts '92 is now a Major in the Corps of Engineers, United States Reserves. He writes from Washington:

"Any civil engineers that you know who are looking for employment can be referred to me; and if you refer any, have them send a complete statement of education and experience in the letter addressed to me."

Rutgers men interested in this call should write directly to Major Philander Betts, Corps of Engineers, Office of the Division of Cantonment Construction, Quartermaster's Department, 15th and M streets, Washington, D. C., stating the fact that they are Rutgers men and giving complete record of education, etc.

III.

THIRD SERIES OF OFFICERS' TRAINING CAMPS.

GENERAL PLAN:—

With the object of training enlisted men of the Regular Army, National Guard, and National Army for appointment of officers, a third series of officers' training camps will be organized. It has been decided to admit to these camps a certain number of graduates and undergraduates of designated universities and colleges. Rutgers is one of the colleges selected, and our quota has been placed at 24. We have been requested to recommend twenty-four men for first choice, and twenty-four others as alternates. Forty-eight Rutgers men will, therefore, be suggested for admission into these camps.

DATE:—

Training in the camps will begin on January 5, 1918, and will be concluded on April 5, 1918.

QUALIFICATIONS:—

Graduates and undergraduates of Rutgers College, who will be between 21 and 31 years old on January 5, 1918, are eligible to apply for admission. Applicants may be married or unmarried. Graduates or undergraduates who did not take the course in military training are not eligible for admission.

STATUS:—

Men recommended, if selected to attend, will be required, upon reporting at the school, to enlist for the duration of the war. If after completing the three months' course, they are not recommended for commission, they will be required to remain in service and finish their enlistment.

PAY:—

Students in the camps will receive the pay and allowances of privates, first class, which is about thirty dollars per month, plus food, clothing, and quarters. Men already enlisted in the Regular Army, National Army, or National Guard, will be carried on detached service while at the training schools. They will receive the pay and allowances of their grade.

COMMISSIONS:—

All men who successfully complete the three months' course and are so recommended, will be carried on a list as eligible for appointment as 2nd lieutenant and will be commissioned as vacancies occur.

These training camps are primarily for men to be commissioned in the line,
