MEN FOR TRENCH WARFARE BRANCH, GUN DIVISION,
ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT

Positions: 150 men to be commissioned as Captains, First Lieutenants, and Second Lieutenants in the Ordnance Officers' Reserve Corps.

Age: Men over 25 years.

Salary: From $2400 a year plus allowance to $1700 a year plus allowance.

Qualifications: Some degree of technical training preferred. Men should be quick, adaptable, and of pleasing personality.

Duties: Those selected will, when commissioned, be given a two months' course in general ordnance, and will then be assigned to field duty. They are to act as instructors in the various cantonments and service schools with a view to informing men of the National Army regarding construction and care of trench warfare material.

Application: Candidates should send to the War Service Bureau of Rutgers College, at once, the following:

A. Letter of application containing
   1. Physical condition. (Only very minor defects
      can be waived)
   2. Military experience, if any.
   3. Full statement of education, with year of graduation and degree.
   4. Full and detailed statement of business experience, giving nature of work in each position and emphasizing work qualifying candidate for this particular work.
   5. Present position and salary.
   6. Town, state, country, and date of birth.
   7. If in draft age, full information in regard to draft status.

B. Three additional letters of recommendation.
