I am fully acclimated to Navy life on land.
Abbot and Foley are up here while Bocheaver, in college in 1914-1915 is my company commander.
My chances for the Ensign School seem good. Got a good letter from Bob Farley who has applied for avocation but expects to return. "Booch."

Well, Sir. how's everything these days? Sorry didn't see you before you left. Called on you but you were not home.
Working us hard here but it's a fine camp and doing fine work. Like it a whole lot. Am here till July when I may go to Princeton Camp for July and August. Please Mrs. Sifers. How's Earl Jr. these days? Hop we can line if you get a chance. yours Si

Mr. Carl Rud Silvers, Director.

Dear Sir: I have your card of inquiry regarding my brother George. He left Camp Dix last Monday with the regiment. We had a card from him mailed at Framingham, Mass. and I have no doubt but that he is now nearly "over there". He gave me instructions to address mail to (Battery E.) 309th Heavy Artillery, American Expeditionary Forces. You may communicate either with me or my uncle, Geo. H. Smith, 60 Corona Ave., Corona, N.Y. concerning him. Yours truly, W. C. Hervey.
